McCollister To Retire From State Assembly

Will Leave Politics At End Of Present Term

Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister announced today he will retire from the state Assembly at the end of his present term.

McCollister told the Mill Valley Rotary Club at its noon meeting he is retiring from active poltical life and will not be a candidate for any political office in the 1960 campaign. His term ends Dec. 31, 1960.

The Republican assemblyman, who represents Marin and Sonoma Counties, will be winding up 20 years service, he is immediately eligible for a pension. He will receive three-quarters of his present salary of $500, or $375 per month. In addition, he will receive three-quarters of whatever the legislators are receiving.

The Legislature adopted at the recent session a bill raising lawmakers wages from $500 to $750 per month. This must be approved by the voters on the November, 1960, ballot.

McCollister, 51, declared he "actually will retire" from public office. But he added, "I don't see how I can avoid going into lobbying. People already have been very kind, several firms have discussed with me the possibility of representing them at the Legislature."

He stressed, however, he would not take a lobbying job until his term is over. He still will represent the district at the 1960 budget session.

McCollister will make his permanent home in Sacramento, where he has "been moving by degrees." Actually he has not lived in Marin for several years, maintaining only a token address here. He said he plans to "move most of the remaining items" from Marin to Sacramento today. He pointed out his wife is from Sacramento and that she has many members of her family there. "Besides, whatever I do will probably relate to the Legislature," he said.

McCollister was first elected to the Legislature in 1940 after 10 years residence in Mill Valley, where he conducted an insurance and real estate business. He served as a member of the board of freeholders which prepared the present charter of the City of Mill Valley. In five of his 10 successful campaigns he won nomination of both parties in the primaries.

His legislative record "has never been of the headline, sensational style," he declared,

County's Tax Rolls Expected To Show Hike

But Valuation Rise Still Is Below Anticipated Level

Preliminary estimates show that Marin County's secured tax roll will go up by 6.4 per cent and the unsecured roll will jump by 25 per cent over last year, Assessor Bert W. Broemmel disclosed today.

However, the raise in valuation still leaves the estimated income below the anticipated level, which means "something has gotta give" if the basic tax rate is to be held at the projected $2.38 per $100 of assessed valuation. Last year, the rate was $2.30.

$182 MILLION

The assessor said the coming year's secured roll is estimated to reach 182 million dollars as compared with last year's $171,085,240.

The unsecured roll which includes personal property, was $9,278,648 last year, including about $532,920 which escaped assessment the previous year.

The estimate for the coming year is about 11 million dollars in the unsecured roll.

The big jump is attributed to tighter assessment of property owned by household tenants and on commercial establishments, the assessor explained.

FIGURE INCREASES

For example, a 10 cent tax is levied on the net of business accounts receivable less accounts payable. Last year, taxes were collected on two million dollars worth of such accounts. This year the figure is about five and one-half million.

The total of secured, unsecured and public utilities (assuming that public utilities will be the same as last year's twenty-two million dollars) properties for the coming year will come to about 215 million. Since the preliminary budget's $2.38 rate is predicated on an income of $218,867,000, some paring is necessary if the $2.38 rate is to be maintained, the assessor pointed out.

Budget hearings are scheduled to begin July 2.

Mixup Puts Man In Rabies Dilemma

A Mill Valley man must decide today whether to undergo two weeks of painful Pasteur treatments or take a chance on contracting lethal rabies. His dilemma was forced upon him when the Marin Humane Society mistakenly destroyed the body of the man's dog before rabies tests could be undertaken.

George Hildreth of 79 Tamalpais drive was scratched by the fang of his dog Friday night shortly before the dog died. He scrubbed the wound on the advice of his personal physician. The next morning he called the Humane Society about getting rid of the dog's body.

Through the Humane Society, County Health Officer Dr. Carolyn Albrecht was informed of the incident, and

Fuchs Freed, Flies Behind Iron Curtain

LONDON (UPI)—Klaus Fuchs, the man who gave the West's atom bomb secrets to the Russians, was released from prison today. Shortly afterwards, he left by plane for Communist East Germany and permanent residence behind the Iron Curtain.

Fuchs spent nine years in Wakefield Prison for his crime.

He was released from Wakefield early today. Then, under a heavy security blackout, he was taken to London airport by Scotland Yard men and placed aboard a Polish airliner bound for East Berlin.

The espionage conviction cost the German-born Fuchs his naturalized British citizenship.

Big Toll Feared In Norway Hotel Fire

Combined AP and UPI

STALHEIM, Norway — Fire raged through a resort hotel here today before dawn, and heavy loss of life was feared. The guest list included 130 American tourists.

Police feared the death toll would exceed 32 and that most of the victims would be Americans. They said they had recovered seven bodies and that more than 25 other persons were missing and feared dead.

There were 147 guests and about 50 Norwegian employees in the 50-year-old four-story wooden Stalheim Hotel when fire flashed through the building at 3 a.m. and trapped many persons in their rooms.

At least 35 persons were taken to hospitals, many of them men and women between the ages of 50 and 60 who had come to this resort area 50 miles northeast of Bergen to view the country's famous fjords.

Police hoped that some of the missing had left the hotel grounds and had merely failed to report their absence. But they could not be sure until they searched the remains of the tourist inn that was built here at the turn of the century.

The search for more victims was extremely difficult and dangerous in the still-smouldering ruins.

Among Americans known to have been injured were Mrs. Johanna Davis, 67, and her grandson, Andrew Dawson, 15, both of Berkeley. They notified relatives in Berkeley that they were "badly hurt" and in a Norwegian hospital.

Blazes Keep Firemen In Marin Hopping

Grass fires and a false alarm kept firemen of various departments in Marin County on the run yesterday afternoon and last night. The areas burned were small, except in a San Rafael brush fire yesterday which began about 1:30 p.m.

Approximately 20 acres at Elizabeth and Chestnut streets in San Rafael were seared by the time firemen from San Rafael and Marin County departments extinguished the blaze at 5:45 p.m.

Three roadside fires, two in San Anselmo and one just outside, were believed to have been deliberately set. Police Chief Donald T. Wood of San Anselmo said his department is checking out a description of a car seen near the sites of the two fires in that city.

The San Anselmo fires were along San Francisco boulevard at 9:58 p.m. and along Cordone drive at 11:30 p.m. The third alarm at 11 p.m., which burned an acre, was for a fare on a hill above Oak Manor. A Marin County Fire Department spokesman said this fire also appeared to have been deliberately set and seemed part of the San Anselmo pattern.

Break Cuts Water In Terra Linda

Water pressure in Terra Linda reached a dangerous low yesterday after a break in a main line in the Terra Linda Oaks subdivision.

A half-million-gallon tank was nearly emptied by the break and high water consumption by valley residents. Fire Chief Richard Flaherty and Terra Linda volunteer firemen toured the tract with siren and loudspeaker in appeal to residents to shut off their lawn sprinklers and to use water sparingly until the big tank could be refilled.

The line was broken at 4:30 p.m. by workers with the Raisch Construction Co. in the new development, but Marin Municipal Water District employees put it in order by 7:30 p.m., according to William R. Seeger, general manager.

When water pressure in the interior part of the valley became low, Flaherty decided to take the emergency measures.

San Anselmo Was Hottest Yesterday

It may have felt hot yesterday, but official maximum temperature readings were under the weekend highs of 100.

Top reading was 98 in San Anselmo, with Woodacre close behind with 95. The noon reading at the court house in San Rafael was a pleasant 72, but the mercury rose to 94 as recorded on the Marin County Savings and Loan thermometer.

Mill Valley's School Tax To Drop 14 Cents

Mill Valley School District trustees last night gave tentative approval to the district's budget for the coming year and announced there would be a 14-cent drop in the tax rate.

The new rate, including charges for bond redemption and repayment on state loans, would be $2.08 per $100 of assessed valuation, according to Supt. G. R. McConnell.

The proposed budget is set at $1,022,800, compared with $991,300 for last year, McConnell noted.

Significant changes in the rate are the result of a five-cent reduction in the bond redemption charge and a six-cent drop in charges for repayment of state loans. There is also a four-cent drop in the operating tax, bringing it to $1.50.

McConnell pointed out that "this is exactly what was promised during the recent bond election campaign. The trustees had urged passage of the measure with the assurance that if it passed, there would be no increase in the tax rate. That is exactly what would have happened."

The bonds lost by 74 votes.

In other matters last night, the trustees were evenly divided on whether the district should bear half the cost with adjacent property owners for improvements to California avenue as it approaches Marin Terrace School. The 270-foot stretch of road would require new grading and pavement estimated to cost about $5,000.

A meeting is scheduled for July 9 with property owners, county and school officials to determine exact costs of the proposal.

Trustees approved payment of warrants totaling $125,791.81.

The board will meet July 1 to name a new president and clerk and to seat newly elected Trustee George M. Wood. He will replace Joe De Smet, who did not seek re-election.

West Nevada Jolted By Earthquakes

RENO (UPI)—A series of rolling earthquakes hit western Nevada beginning at 7:33 a.m. today, but apparently caused no damage.

The University of California seismographic station at Berkeley said the shocks ranged up to 6¼—"strong" — on the Richter magnitude scale.

Two shocks were felt in Fallon, one at about 7:30 a.m. and another at about 8:10 a.m., near the notorious Dixie Valley Fault where Nevada's most serious quakes have been centered in recent years.

The Churchill County Sheriff's Office in Fallon said both were sharp shocks, but no damage was reported.

Petaluma Woman Injured As Car Overturns On 101

A 36-year-old Petaluma woman, Electa Rocheleau, suffered a fractured pelvis, broken ribs and possible internal injuries at 5:55 a.m. today when her car overturned on Highway 101 just north of the Black Point cutoff. She was thrown from the car, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Miss Rocheleau, who works in San Francisco as an egg packer, was southbound when the left rear tire of her car blew out. She lost control and the car overturned into the center divider strip, CHP Officer J. E. Halligan said.

The injured woman was taken by ambulance to San Rafael General Hospital, where her condition was described as "satisfactory." She was to be transferred to Petaluma General Hospital this afternoon.

Mental Patients Riot Hold 5 Guards Hostage

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UPI)—More than 100 rioting mental patients held five guards hostage at the U.S. Prison Medical Center today, refusing to state their demands to Warden Russell O. Setttle.

The 115 patients—persons sentenced to federal institutions but needing medical attention—overpowered the guards with home-made knives five minutes before lights-out last night.

They communicated to the warden only three times—and at no time gave the reasons for the riot, or stated their demands.

Their latest communication, at 6:30 a.m., demanded food and coffee. Warden Settle turned it down. The men were without food in the "north 10 wing" of the sprawling mental hospital.

The center is the only general hospital for the 28 federal prisons spread out across the land. The facilities on its 442 acres are primarily used for the treatment of mentally disturbed persons, but also take care of some physical ailments beyond the capacities of normal hospitals.

Settle said the 115 rioters were considered the most dangerous group of the some 1,000 inmates at the center. He described the rebels as "homosexuals and neuropsychotics."

A guard who witnessed the riot develop said the inmates quickly stripped the five guards to their shorts. Some of the inmates donned the guards' uniforms.

However, there were no reports of the guards being bodily harmed. They were identified as Leonard Appleby, 55; Robert Rosendahl, 38; William L. Fitch, 45; Charles Allen, 48, and Melvin Jung, 57, all veterans of the Federal Corrections Service. All are married.

Warden Settle said he had no plans to storm the wing and attempt to free the guards.

"We'll just wait 'em out," he said.

The riot broke out at 9:55 p.m.

Shortly thereafter, a rioter called Warden Settle on the prison's communications system and said "any attempt to enter our wing will mean that all guards will be hurt . . . we mean business."

At 10:20 p.m., the rioters notified the warden they were

College Board May Levy Special Tax

A one-year "community service" tax of three cents per $100 of assessed valuation is expected to be authorized tonight by a 3-1 vote of Marin Junior College District trustees.

This was indicated by the board today at an unannounced "work session" on the district's 1959-60 preliminary budget of $1,137,922.

The special tax would finance improvements to the college football field and adjacent areas, including a new lighting system for night athletic events. Estimated costs of improvement is $56,950.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy estimated the special tax would raise $56,700 on the secured and unsecured tax roll. Board members indicated they might skimp somewhat on the proposed project if actual revenue falls short of estimated costs.

Opposition to the tax, which would be levied in addition to a basic rate of 35 cents, was voiced by Trustee George R. Washburn. He said the improvements would "be for the benefit of a very few people in the county."

Trustees Rupert E. Kempf, Kent O. Seymour and Mrs. Deedy expressed support of the tax.

By removing the proposed expenditures from educational costs, the board presumably would be free to grant at least part of a faculty request for a 7½ per cent pay increase, estimated to total $32,400.

The college board will meet at 8 p.m. in Harlan Hall on the College of Marin campus. It will be an adjourned session.

Two Injured As 'Cycle Flips Over

An inexperienced motorcyclist last night apparently applied the brake and the throttle at the same time. The 'cycle flipped and landed on top of him and his passenger.

The cyclist, Robert Newton Pedrick, 31, of 280 Redwood road, San Anselmo, suffered numerous puncture wounds on his face and body and cuts on his hands and legs. He underwent surgery last night at Ross Hospital and is described as being in "fine" condition today.

The passenger, Johnny V. Harrell of 70 Manzanita road, Fairfax, owns the motorcycle. He apparently was uninjured.

According to the California Highway Patrol, Pedrick was taking his first trip at the controls of a 'cycle. As the vehicle, southbound on Nicasio road, approached the intersection of San Geronimo Valley road at 8:15 p.m., Pedrick apparently applied the hand brake and the throttle, thus locking the front wheel and accelerating the rear wheel.

The 'cycle flipped forward, skidding about 50 feet and landing on the riders.

Marin Firm Gets Big Army Order

A. G. Schoonmaker Co., of Sausalito, has been a awarded a contract from the Army Corps of Engineers for 13 diesel generator sets totaling $1,201,000, it was announced today.

The 30-ton 1,200-horsepower engines and generators are for use at aircraft warning stations being constructed in the Midwest, according to T. L. Schoonmaker, president of the Sausalito firm. Schoonmaker recently returned from Chicago, where the contract was awarded.

The company, as prime contractor, will be responsible for supplying power plants as well as all engineering and supervision of installation at sites, he said.

"We are hopeful of receiving other similar contracts," Schoonmaker said, "as there are many installations now in the planning stage for aircraft warning and missile stations."

The massive engines are scheduled for delivery starting in October.

Planners Fail To Agree On Law Changes

The Marin County Planning Commission, attempting to draft recommended amendments to the county zoning ordinance to tighten commission control over apartment developments, was unable to reach a decision yesterday and deferred the matter to July 6.

Only four of the six commissioners were present. They were Commissioners Dr. William Upton, Margaret Azevedo, George Scott and George Ludy.

The proposed ordinance changes are intended to provide control over population density, parking space requirements, number of units per apartment building and required open space on apartment lots.

Because of their inability to decide on the proposed changes, the planners were also unable to reach a clear-cut decision on two applications for apartment zoning which have been held up pending a decision on the amendments.

By votes of 2-2, the commission in effect denied applications of the First Congregational Church of San Rafael for apartment zoning of part of its new church site property on Merrydale road north of San Rafael, and of Adeline Bianchi and others for apartment zoning of 6.5 acres west of Highway 101 at Ignacio.

Voting against the applications because they wanted to hold them until a decision is reached on the law changes were Dr. Upton and Mrs. Azevedo. Voting to approve the applications were Scott and Ludy.

There were indications both applicants will appeal to the board of supervisors.

34 To Attend Church Meet

More than 35 Jehovah's Witnesses from San Rafael will leave Thursday for a four-day annual district assembly to be held at the San Joaquin County Fairgrounds at Stockton. The convention is sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society.

D. E. Hull, presiding minister of the San Rafael congregation, said "It has been necessary to cancel most of the meetings from June 25 to 28, since most of those in charge of various features will be attending the assembly.

"The local delegates attending will benefit greatly not only from the rich spiritual provisions, but also from Christian association."

Approximately 5,000 persons will attend from the 80 congregations.

The program will include morning, afternoon and evening sessions devoted to Bible talks, discussions and demonstrations.

On Saturday, William D. Couch, representative of Jehovah's Witnesses and principal speaker, will conduct baptism services for new ministers. Ordination of the new ministers will be concluded at the McKinley Park Pool by immersion.

At 3 p.m. Sunday Couch will speak on "When God Speaks Peace to All Nations."

Compromise Out As Steel Talks Resume

NEW YORK (UPI)—Steel contract negotiations resumed here today with a compromise wage proposal apparently scuttled and two big steel plants already shut down by a wildcat strike.

Half a million basic steel workers may be called on strike one week from tonight if the United Steelworkers of America and the 12-company industry bargaining team fail to agree before that time on new contract terms.

TWO PLANTS SHUT

About 12,000 steelworkers shut down two Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. plants in Pittsburgh yesterday in a dispute over incentive pay. Three other Jones and Laughlin mills, with about 25,000 workers, remained in operation.

R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of United States Steel Corp., and head of the four-man industry bargaining team, yesterday scotched a "non-inflationary" wage compromise which was reported to have been suggested to both sides by government officials.

NOT SUGGESTED

Cooper said it had not been suggested to him. But he said he didn't think the proposal as reported—to put most of any money settlement into supplementary benefits rather than immediate wage increase—was any less inflationary than a direct wage boost.

Union president David J. McDonald also denied that such a proposal had been made to him in Washington, and indicated he didn't think any more of it than did Cooper.

'COME TO CONNECTICUT'

Gov. Ribicoff Woos California Industry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Connecticut's Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff told California industrialists today his state "has the most to offer any industry planning to establish an East Coast branch."

Ribicoff said he regarded his mission to California, in which he seeks new plants for his state, as a "fascinating indication of the industrial maturity of California."

He addressed more than 60 industrial engineers and executives invited by the Connecticut State Development Commission to hear Ribicoff's promotion pitch on his state's advantages for East Coast industrial expansion.

Ribicoff will speak at a similar commission luncheon in Los Angeles Thursday.

While working to lure new branches and payrolls to his state on a two-week visit to California, Ribicoff disclosed he was asked by California's Gov. Edmund G. Brown for a rundown on how the Connecticut commission operates.

The recently adjourned California Legislature created the California State Economic Development Agency, sponsored by Brown to promote industrial expansion in this state.

The Connecticut commission, established 20 years ago, was one of the first created by a state government to work on attracting new industries.

"I offered to give Brown all available material on our experience," Ribicoff said, "and he told me he would be happy to have it."

Ribicoff declared he wanted to make "crystal clear" he was talking in California only to those businesses who plan now or in the future to expand by establishing branches in the East.

"We are not here on any industry raid," Ribicoff insisted. "We are not asking anyone to pack up and move to Connecticut.

"We feel that in our expanding economy more California industries must be thinking of the advantages of having a branch near the eastern markets."

Ribicoff stressed in his talk that "Connecticut has no personal income tax and traditionally opposes such a tax."

He said the state General Assembly produced a balanced budget for the two-year period beginning July 1 without any new taxes or any general tax increase.

Since the start of 1955, he said, "more than 650 new plants, large and small, have been established in our state and now are operating with a total of more than 17,000 employees."

Ribicoff said his state's percentage of skilled workers to total workers was higher than any other state's. More than 220 Connecticut manufacturers now produce missile parts or service for missile industries, many of which are centered in California.

Planners Refuse Tonini's Request On Boat Harbor

The county planning commission yesterday denied an adjustment requested by Milton Tonini of Ross to expedite construction of Tonini's planned 203-berth boat harbor in Tiburon Cove.

Tonini wanted to submit only a partial master plan for his development and asked the variance from a requirement that a complete plan be submitted.

The commission, by unanimous vote of the four commissioners present, denied this request and will require submission of the complete plan. There were indications Tonini may fight the commission's decision and seek approval of the adjustment from the board of supervisors.

Fall At Yosemite Kills L.A. Boy

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK (UPI) — A 10 year old Los Angeles boy was killed last night when he fell from a rock above Camp Curry after telling his cousin he was "going to watch the fireball."

Park rangers reported Bobby Irion apparently died when he fell 100 feet from a sheer rock about 500 feet above the valley floor. They estimated he died around 9:30 p.m. but his body was not found until about 1 a. m. by searchers.

The 77-year-old executive will continue as board chairman of the controlling firm, Kaiser Industries Corp., and in an active management role in the new post of founder-chairman of Kaiser Steel, Kaiser Aluminum, Willys Motors, and Permanente Cement.

J. L. Ashby becomes new president of Kaiser Steel, S. A. Girard of Willys Motors, W. A. Marsh of Permanente Cement, and D. A. Rhoades of Kaiser Aluminum.

Novato Trustees To Study Salaries

A proposed salary schedule for administrators and salaries for classified employees with the Novato Unified School District will be considered by the board of trustees at 8 o'clock tonight at district administration offices.

Also to be considered will be bids for classroom furniture at Hill and Lu Sutton Schools, a progress report on the tentative 1959-60 budget and district building and maintenance progress reports.

Parole Board Expected To Free Boy, 16

Cameron Loessberg failed yesterday in his attempt to get out of a Marin jail sentence through a claim that he is 16 years old, not 22 as he said when he was arrested.

Indications were, however, that he will make it today.

Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori refused to set aside Loessberg's sentence, imposed on a conviction for contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The case grew out of Loessberg's alleged seduction of a 16-year-old San Rafael High School girl.

However, Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich said he had assurances that the county parole board, meeting today, would grant parole to Loessburg, who would then be taken before the juvenile court on a petition to make Loessberg a ward of that court.

Under this procedure, it was expected that Loessburg would be made a court ward and transferred to the jurisdiction of the Sacramento juvenile court because he is a Sacramento resident.

Loessberg gave his age as 22 when he was arrested in April. After being sentenced to jail, he claimed to be only 16, and the claim was substantiated by his mother.

Court Upholds Arrests Made On Anonymous Tips

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The state Supreme Court ruled yesterday that arrests may be made on the tips of anonymous informers.

The unanimous decision modified an October ruling. The court said then police must reveal the names of tipsters if demanded by a defendant.

The court made an exception yesterday in the case of an alleged bookmaker, Henry Victor Prewitt of Los Angeles.

Police said they brake into Prewitt's apartment after receiving an anonymous telephone tip. Although they didn't know his name, police said he had given reliable evidence twice before.

Police may act on a reliable informant's information whether they know his name or not, the court held.

"If the officer does not know the name of an informer he does not suppress evidence by not stating it," the decision said.

Also reported were: two cases of gonorrhea, 12 mumps, one syphillis, one pertussis, and one shigella.

Bela Kovacs Dies

VIENNA (UPI)—Bela Kovacs, 55, a member of the revolutionary cabinet of the late Premier Imre Nagy, died Sunday, Radio Budapest announced.

Kovacs had been ill for the past several months and had been in a hospital in southern Hungary.

Kovacs headed the Small Holders Party, Hungary's largest party, after World War II and also was minister of agriculture. He was arrested by the Russians in 1948 when they took over the country.

He was released in 1953 after Stalin's death. During the 1956 revolt he was named agriculture minister again by Nagy and later was under arrest for a long period.

Last year he was named a member of Hungary's Communist parliament and soon afterwards publicly praised the Communist regime.

Principal Hired For Marin City

Sausalito School District trustees last night hired Morris Brown, 41-year-old El Cerrito educator, to be principal of the Marin City School, succeeding Mrs. Estelle Close, who is retiring.

The appointment is effective July 1.

Brown, educated at the University of California, has been with the San Pablo School District since 1951 as teacher and vice principal. He is married and the father of two.

Supt. Marcus F. Davis said Brown was selected by the trustees from among 15 applicants.

Trustees were also informed last night that Monroe Haas of Sanger, who had been offered the position of principal at Central and Bayside schools at the last meeting, has declined the appointment. Davis said trustees will continue interviews to fill the post.

Trustees also accepted, with regret, the resignation of Joaquin Arago, for six years director of boys' physical education at Richardson Bay School. Arago, originally from San Francisco, will seek an appointment in physical education at a high school.

In other business, trustees decided to draft complete written policies for operation of the child care center in Marin City.

The July 1 meeting will be held at 8 a.m. A new president and clerk of the board will be designated.

At the same time, newly elected Trustee Dr. John S. Wellington will be seated. He replaces Robert E. Rogers, who did not seek re-election.

Next regular meeting will be July 13.

Brown Won't Deny Serious Candidacy

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown did not deny today that he might be a serious candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960.

Discussing next year's election with reporters at his weekly news conference, Brown again said he intended to run as a "favorite son" presidential candidate in the California primary next year.

"Does that mean you'll be a nominal candidate?" he was asked.

"Let's just leave it as favorite son and let them interpret it any way they want to," Brown replied.

"But you haven't ruled out the possibility you might be a serious candidate?" the reporter persisted.

"I'm only going to be a favorite son candidate and how serious that will be we'll just have to wait and see," the governor said.

Brown said he hoped that none of the Democratic hopefuls would enter the California primary "so California can have a united delegation at the convention."

He added, however, that any who cares to certainly has the privilege of entering the primary against him.

Brown said that when he conferred last Sunday in San Francisco with Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut, Ribicoff boosted the stock of Sen. John F. Kennedy but did not indicate that Kennedy would enter the California primary next June.

There are about 30,000 cleaning and tailoring shops in the U. S. In 1957, they did an estimated one and a half billion dollars worth of business.

Lids Off Budget In Corte Madera

The lid was lifted from Corte Madera's proposed 1959-60 budget last night by Roger F. Morse.

The mayor handed copies of the proposed budget to six persons in the audience. A seventh displayed no interest in having a copy.

Mayor Morse said he felt "well publicized" after an Independent-Journal report on his refusal to release the budget to the press last week. Two members of the press were at last night's meeting and each got a budget.

Mayor Morse and Councilmen Edward A. Colthurst and William R. Hansen got about half-way through the budget with a minimum of discussion and few changes. Another budget session will be scheduled when the council meets July 6. A public hearing is set for Aug. 3 at 8 p.m.

The budget total as proposed is $344,916. Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow recommended a tax rate of $1.48 per $100 assessed valuation, the same as this year.

By a series of unanimous votes, the three councilmen approved the following sections of the budget:

GENERAL GOVERNMENT—$13,537 to cover office expenses, election, half of Town Manager Brandow's $9,624 salary and $2,400 for Town Clerk Naydeen Penny.

FINANCE AND ACCOUNTS—$6,479, which includes a town treasurer salary of $600 for John R. Vance and $4,554 account clerk salary for Mrs. Bertha Hall.

LEGAL—$2,100 town attorney's fees for John B. Ehlen plus $200 for extras.

PLANNING AND ZONING—$1,425, including $1,200 reimbursable planning consultant's fees and $1,000 commission secretary's salary for Mrs. Portia Fitzgerald.

ENGINEERING AND SUPERVISION—$5,712, which includes the second half of Brandow's salary (as town engineer) and $600 for survey, drafting and testing.

TOWN BUILDING—$10,431, which includes spending $150 for 24 new chairs for the audience in the council chambers and a $3,600 vehicle maintenance and storage building behind the town hall annex. The council voted to delete $600 for new overhead lights in the council chambers. The council decided to "hold for further consideration" an item of $1,500 to install an underground gasoline tank and pump. Brandow said the town could amortize cost of the installation within three years by using the county's gasoline contract, a saving over retail prices.

Under the heading of miscellaneous general government expenses was $15,700 allocated for insurance payments and street improvement bond interest.

POLICE DEPARTMENT — $33,303, which includes authorization to hire a fifth police officer at a salary of $4,404 a year. The council delegated Chief Frank L. Nelson to see if the Larkspur School District will underwrite the cost of hiring a school crossing guard for Neil Cummins School pupils crossing Tamalpais drive.

FIRE DEPARTMENT — $15,271, which includes a new hosing, resuscitator, two air packs, a smoke ejector and a two-way hydrant at Redwood and Willow avenues. The council turned down a $2,000 request submitted by Chief Nelson for medical insurance for volunteer firemen.

BUILDING INSPECTION — $8,300, which includes $6,840 building inspector's salary for William McBride.

RETIRING

"because I did not want things that way."

However, he said he had serviced all constituent requests and authored many bills relating to veterans' benefits, agriculture, courts, parks, dairymen and official matters for the two counties."

He headed a number of legislative committees and served as Republican floor leader from 1955 to 1958.

McCollister said the reason he is announcing his retirement so early is "so the electorate of both political parties may have time to choose my successor." Already named as possible candidate to succeed him are Republicans William T. Bagley, San Rafael attorney; Marin Dist. Atty W. O. Weisich, and Sonoma County Supervisor Leigh S. Shoemaker. Democrat John Fitzgerald, Santa Rosa attorney, has been mentioned, as has Mrs. Vera Schultz, from Mill Valley, who unsuccessfully opposed McCollister several years ago.

Presiding at today's Rotary Club meeting, over which McCollister presided as president in 1935-36, was Guido Todaro. He also was winding up his term of office as president at the meeting held in the Mill Valley Golf Clubhouse.

Morals, Marijuana Suspects Indicted

Two men accused of molesting children, and a Mill Valley amateur botanist suspected of growing marijuana, were formally indicted by the Marin County Grand Jury last night.

All three will be arraigned in Marin Superior Court Monday morning.

A 14-year-old girl told how she was intimate with a family friend and "second father," Stanley Milton Trayner, 43, of 125 Richardson drive, Strawberry during the past two years. Trayner is accused of statutory rape, child molesting and perversion.

Four girls, aged 10 to 12, testified against a San Francisco fruit vendor, John Garvin Hicks, 62. The girls said they were invited into Hicks's truck and molested. Hicks is accused on four counts of child molesting.

Donald Philip James, 25, of 59 Crown court, Mill Valley, faces charges of marijuana possession and planting and cultivating marijuana. Sheriff's deputies and police raided his home and found 17 potted marijuana plants thriving on the back porch.

The grand jurors also indicted five San Quentin convicts for crimes ranging from knife possession to felonious assault.

RABIES

she advised that the dog's body be examined for rabies.

"I don't think he (the dog) had rabies," Hildreth said today. "He wasn't violent. My doctor doesn't think he had rabies and neither does the vet. But no one can be sure."

Dr. Albrecht advised Hildreth by telephone Saturday morning she would have the dog's body picked up and delivered to the Humane Society office in San Rafael where it would be held for rabies examinations Monday.

She said she talked to an employee at the Humane Society office to inform him the dog's body would be delivered and for what purpose.

A county sanitarian picked up the dog's body at 3 p.m. Saturday from the Hildreth home. Believing the Humane Society office to be closed, the sanitarian reported to Dr. Albrecht, he took the dog in the back door and deposited it on a table there. He told Dr. Albrecht that he informed a person in the Humane Society office why the dog's body was there, and had marked the carton containing the body with Hildreth's name.

But said Humane Society director Mel Morse today: "The dog's body was just lying there and it was pretty ripe. One of our employees incinerated it."

He said citizens frequently dump dead animals on the Humane Society premises without identification or instruction and he is sure his employee assumed the Hildreth dog was one of these. In such an instance, the society assumes the bodies have been left for disposal and they are burned.

Informed of the dog's destruction, Hildreth was faced with the alternative of taking the series of 14 shots—characterized as dangerous, painful and expensive—or taking his chances on not catching rabies.

The symptoms could appear in a human anywhere from two weeks to a year after being bitten, he has been advised. Rabies is believed to be inevitably fatal.

Hildreth's dog, Skippy, a black cocker spaniel type, had been inoculated for rabies.

But Dr. Albrecht, Hildreth said, asked the advice of the state Board of Health and it recommended that Hildreth undertake the shots anyhow.

At noon today, Hildreth said he would have to make up his mind within a few hours. "I'm in a helluva fix," he said.

Dr. Albrecht had a final word: "I have talked to Mr. Morse and we have scheduled a meeting for Friday morning with his staff and mine to work out procedures so that this won't ever happen again."

Driver Denies Leaving Injured Child In Road

Two-year-old Vicky Marie Doyle of Santa Venetia suffered scratches and bruises of the feet and knees yesterday when she hung onto the rear of a pickup truck and was dragged about 400 feet.

The driver of the truck, Arthur Annis, 32, of 125 Clayton street, San Rafael, appeared at the San Rafael office of the California Highway Patrol today to deny published reports that he left the child bruised and bleeding in the road, and drove away.

Annis said he and his helper, Eugene Bower, about 34, of Vacaville, were working on a construction job next door to the Doyle home at 34 Venetia Meadow, and several times warned Vicky and two playmates to stop climbing on the truck.

As they prepared to leave the job, he said, the children asked for a ride and again climbed on the truck. When they didn't get off after being told to do so, Annis reported, Bower got out and lifted the children off the truck.

They drove away at slow speed, Annis said, unaware that the three children were playfully "pushing" the truck. Apparently Vicky hung on as the others let go, and was dragged behind the vehicle.

Annis said he did not hear any shouts from neighbors, but became aware of the child's presence only when he heard her "laughing and giggling" at the rear of the truck.

He stopped, he said, and the child ran off in the direction of her home. Annis said he had no reason to think she was hurt, and drove away.

A neighbor ran out and picked up the little girl, and her father, Harry J. Doyle, drove her to Marin General Hospital, where she was treated for leg injuries.

Attendants at the hospital said her injuries were minor scratches and the child was released after brief treatment.

After taking Annis' report, the Highway Patrol indicated no citation would be issued against him, though he was warned that he should have stopped to make certain the girl was not hurt.

Annis and Bower are employed by a San Rafael paint firm on the construction job near the Doyle home.

preparing a list of demands.

"Don't call, we'll call you," the rioter said.

The siege then went through the night. A "call" came, at 6:30 a.m., but it was only the request for food. Settle turned it down.

Jim Billings, city editor of the Springfield Daily News, said the rebelling convicts were so quiet that other patients were not disturbed. The convicts milled about the corridor of their isolated wing in the dark during the night.

The lights had been smashed during the first flurry of excitement, the only apparent damage.

Fast Draw Artist Hits Self In Leg

A fast draw artist, practicing the western art with a .22 caliber Ruger, shot himself in the right leg last night, sheriff's deptuies reported today.

Gary R. Weiland of Post Office Box 11, Lagunitas, suffered a flesh wound on the right calf. His doctor removed the slug and closed the wound with five stitches.

Deputy Arthur Wiggins said Weiland was practicing in the rear yard of his home about 6 p.m. when the mishap occurred.

Racoon Shot, Possibly Rabid

A possibly rabid raccoon, shot last night in Mill Valley by a deputy sheriff, will be tested at the state Health Department offices in Berkeley.

The results may not be known for several weeks, County Health Officer Carolyn Albrecht reported today.

Ed Mamura of 261 Evergreen street, Mill Valley, noticed a raccoon acting suspiciously in his driveway and called the sheriff. He told Deputy James Baird the animal staggered as it walked.

When Baird tried to approach, the raccoon reared up on its hind legs as if to fight. Baird shot it. The officer killed the racoon because it could have escaped he said.

The animal was taken to the Marin County Health Department this morning. Dr. Albrecht said that in some cases rabies can be discovered in 24 hours; but if preliminary tests do not show rabies, then it will be sent to Berkeley for further tests. Confirmation on whether the animal did or did not have rabies may then take from 10 days to several weeks.

Rapist Receives Prison Sentence

Henry Scott, 25-year-old San Francisco car washer who raped a 16-year-old San Francisco school girl at Marin City last September, must spend from 0 to 50 years in state prison.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court yesterday sentenced Scott for the beating and attack on the girl after a Marin City party. Both were guests at the party on Sept. 13.

The girl said she went outside for a breath of fresh air when Scott dragged her into his car and drove to an isolated spot. When she resisted, he tore her clothing, threatened to kill her, and assaulted her. He drove her to Waldo grade and let her off.

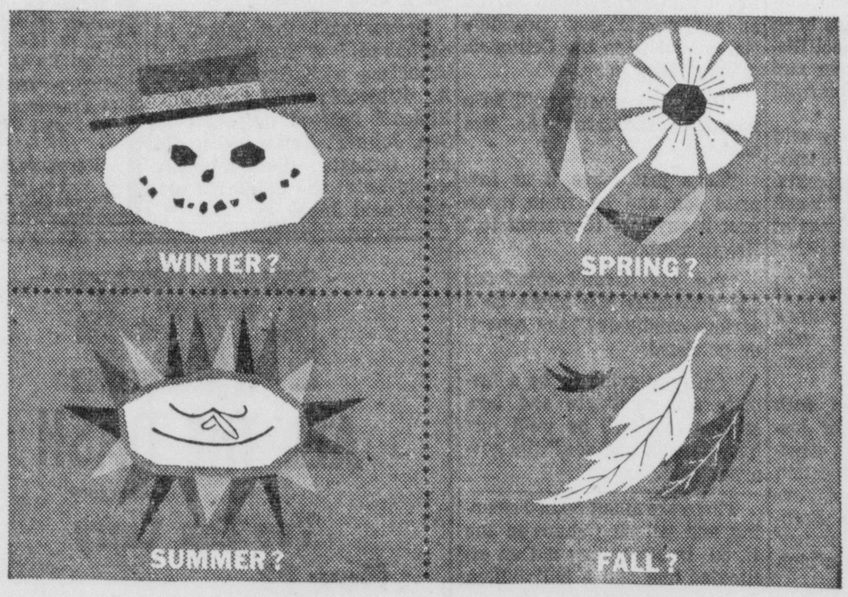
In which season are newspapers read most frequently?



ONE OF A SERIES

ANSWER: THERE'S PRACTICALLY NO SEASONAL CHANGE AT ALL! An analysis of newspaper circulation over a three-year period showed that the newspaper habit is constant throughout the year. There is no "off" season for the newspaper habit, either in size of audience or in amount of reading. Therefore, advertisers can rely on their audience always being present—come rain or shine, come cold weather or hot.

Another Vanguard Satellite Flops; Only One More To Go

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Vanguard missilemen, disappointed in their latest satellite flop, turned their attention today to their final launching vehicle.

The second stage, long a jinx to the program, failed to function properly yesterday on the 10th Vanguard launching attempt. The rocket's 22½-pound, basketball-size satellite apparently plunged back into the earth's atmosphere.

An informed source reported a compression regulator in the second stage did not work, causing a small explosion that sent the rocket off course.

Eight of the Vanguard satellite attempts failed, six of them because of the second stage, which contains the control and guidance systems of the missile. The two successes hurled Vanguard satellites I and II into long-time orbits around the earth.

Only one Vanguard launching vehicle remains. It probably will be fired in the next few months, ringing down the curtain on the hard luck Vanguard program.

Originally, all the Vanguards were to be launched during International Geophysical Year. Troubles delayed the Vanguard program and four of the launching vehicles still remained when IGY ended Dec. 31.

The final Vanguard is scheduled to be a repeat attempt of last April's three-in-one satellite shot.

The three-in-one attempt also fizzled because of a second-stage malfunction. Its goal was to throw two scientific satellites and the third-stage rocket into orbit.

Yesterday's launching appeared near-perfect to Cape observers. But the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced two hours later in Washington that the satellite probably did not attain orbit because of a second-stage malfunction.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

North Marin Man Should Get College Trustee Seat

The Board of Trustees of College of Marin meets this week with one seat vacant—that left empty by the resignation of Ada M. Fusselman after 33 years of service.

Job of filling that vacant chair rests on the shoulders of the other four members. Under the law, they should fill any vacancies. However, if they can not reach a decision, the County Board of Education would be empowered to make the choice.

We have pointed out in this space before how important it is that the highest type citizens of Marin serve on our college's governing board. Especially is it true of this particular board, because to it will fall the selection of a new college president when Ward Austin reaches the mandatory retirement age in the not too distant future.

We don't have a particular candidate in mind—Mrs. Fusselman's resignation came a little too unexpectedly for us to have seriously canvassed all the possibilities.

We do hope that the trustees will not plunge too quickly into their selection.

There is one point we hope they will consider. Central and Southern Marin are well represented on the college board, and have always so been. However, San Rafael and the North Marin area haven't had representation for a number of years.

Last San Rafael resident to serve was Ray Henfling, whose term expired in June 1953. That's six years ago.

It hardly seems appropriate that such a large segment of the county's population as San Rafael and the North area should be without a voice in the affairs of our highest educational institution.

We hope the trustees wlil give this situation their serious consideration.

Lights Of Broadway Are Dimmer

When Ethel Barrymore passed away in Hollywood last week the final curtain rang down on what was once America's Royal Family of the stage.

Ethel, John and Lionel Barrymore were the giants of the American footlights for decades, but despite the brilliance of John and noted ability of Lionel, there was little doubt that Ethel was the greatest of the trio. Certainly she was the most versatile.

At the age of 17 she played the part of a woman 35 and was a great success. Later at 43 she played the role of a 14-year-old and again achieved a triumph. Her greatest success was in "The Corn Is Green," in which she starred for five years and 1100 performances.

Although Ethel Barrymore had sufficient lustre and talent of her own to make her the unchallenged queen of the American stage, her family added to her fame. Born on Aug. 15, 1879, she was the daughter of Maurice Barrymore, the most popular leading man of his day, and of Georgiana Drew Barrymore, a comedienne and sister of John Drew, one of the greatest actors of the 19th century.

She not only lived up to the family's fame, but greatly enhanced it. The lights of Broadway are a little dimmer now.

ACCEPT DUTIES, DON'T EVADE THEM

At one very important criminal trial some years ago, 637 men and women who were approached for jury duty "begged off."

None of these individuals would deliberately thwart the ends of justice. But however unwittingly they may have acted, they were doing just that. Freedom would be quickly undermined if everyone imitated their avoidance of duty.

With the blessings of liberty go the responsibilities of citizenship. It is one of the great advantages of freedom that individuals in all walks of life can have a voice in the way government is run, in the manner in which justice is administered, in the formation of policy and in the selection of officials.

When anyone shirks his duty and expects some one else to take on his share of the responsibilities of self-government, it weakens freedom just that much and opens the door a tiny bit to the corroding effects of graft, corruption or disloyalty.

"Not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified." (Romans 2:13)

Teach me, O Lord, to accept gladly the responsibilities on which freedom depends.

Parting From Child Is All The Hell Two Parents Could Ever Want

NEW YORK (AP) — It was Emily Dickinson who wrote that parting is all we know of heaven, and all we need of hell.

Certainly parting from a child for the first time is all the hell parents could ever want. But the reunion sometimes almost makes it worthwhile. You learn a lot from the experience.

Recently Frances and I had the opportunity to make a fou-week vacation trip to Europe. But no children were to be included.

This posed a real problem. Since adopting our daughter, Tracy Ann, shortly after her birth nearly six years before, Frances and I had never been away from her more than a weekend.

How could we leave her for a whole month? We considered abandoning the trip, even though we felt we might not have such an opportunity again in our lifetime.

We finally decided to put the whole decision up to Tracy herself.

"You can go," said Tracy gravely, "if you don't stay away too long — and you promise to be good."

We promised — and she promised — and we sailed away.

The second morning out I awoke in our cabin to find my wife weeping.

"Now what have I done wrong?" I asked, figuring I must have talked in my sleep and said something incriminating.

"Who cares what you do?" said Frances. "I miss my baby."

After that we tacitly quit mentioning Tracy, and missed her silently and separately together.

Would Tracy have missed us much? How would she greet us?

"SHE'LL JUST SAY hello, and run off and play," I ventured.

"No, she won't," said Frances positively.

We got off the ship, and took a train to the suburbs. A freckle-faced tornado rushed up and grabbed Frances fiercely around the legs.

"Mommy! Mommy! Mommy!" cried Tracy, and broke into uncontrollable sobs.

LATER IN THE DAY Tracy took Frances aside and whispered to her, "Every day when I was alone I said to myself that when you came back I'd never be mean to you again."

In the week since then Tracy has kept the pledge. She has been almost too angelic. She has only pulled the cat's tail twice, and the cat can't figure that out either.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

SF State Grads Were Not Listed

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I was indeed disappointed the Journal did not publish the names of Marin County students who just graduated from San Francisco State College on June 6th. 1875 received degrees, 1059 received the bachelor of arts.

Joseph C. Meagor Jr. received his bachelor of arts. He plans to enter seminary in the fall, preparing for the ministry. We are so well known around here I thought you would be interested in this information.

San Francisco State College is the most outstanding college in Northern California, and still no names from Marin County ever appeared in the local paper.

Others I happen to know about are Anita Vieties, Carol Hohlen from San Anselmo, and Katherine Minahan from San Rafael. There may be many more I was not acquainted with.

I noticed names from Marin who graduated from San Jose State and other colleges further away. I feel sure you would be interested in those from Marin who just received degrees from San Francisco State College. They have 11,000 students enrolled.

(NOTE: The I-J attempts to get and publish graduation lists from every school in which Marinites participate. Every list of local graduates which came to our office was published. If we missed San Francisco State College, we're sorry, but we never did receive it. We're particularly sorry for the sake of those Marin graduates whose most important day was not properly noted by us.)

CAN'T REPEAL IT

Congress May Amend Law Of Fool, Money

By FRANK ELEAZER

WASHINGTON (UPI)—There is an old law to the effect that a fool and his money are soon parted, and it will be a long time before that one is repealed. However, Congress is being asked to amend it a little.

Edward N. Gadsby, chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, didn't exactly use the word "fool" in his testimony for a Senate Banking Subcommittee. He spoke of the "unsophisticated investor" and the fellow "lured by spurious get-rich-quick schemes."

Gadsby said he and his helpers have discovered some loopholes in the laws Congress passed in 1933 and 1934 to protect investors from a repetition of some of the things that happened to them in 1929.

THINGS LIKE MAYBE another big break in the market? Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr. (D-N.J.) wondered hopefully, running over the list of proposed amendments to the existing securities laws.

Unfortunately not, Gadsby said. Market prices, which recently have hit record highs, come under the law of supply and demand, it appears, and that's one law that can't be repealed.

"I think it's fair to say that the ingenuity of a large number of talented persons has been employed since 1929 to design proper statutes regarding the sale of securities," Gadsby told Williams. "We have been unable to picture any statute to do what you imply—prevent a fall in the market price."

WHAT HE DOES want congress to do, Gadsby said, is amend the securities laws to make it a little bit harder for us to be suckers.

"The need for added investor protections and the strengthening of our enforcement hand," he said, "is particularly imperative today in view of the current extremely active securities market."

What he meant here, I deduced, is that with all the money being made in the market these days, just about everybody is getting in, and that inevitably a certain number of crooks are standing ready to fleece anybody they can.

Under one of the many amendments sought by SEC, people like that would have to keep books, and also let SEC see them.

Neither Williams nor Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.), the other senator present, asked Gadsby for advice on the market. I guess they knew he wouldn't supply it.

However, there's one additional old law I wish they had asked him about. This one says whatever goes up must come down. If that's been repealed, I'd sure like to know it.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

The Wall Street Journal tracked down a not-too-bright office girl who, when finally discovered, had thought for eight solid months that the waste-paper chute down to the furnace was a filing cabinet. That's where she had stuffed every letter given her to file.

"That's not the worst of it," mourned the bank V.P. who exposed her. "We figure that we lost 3,000 letters as a result of this girl's stupidity—and to this day we haven't needed one of them!"

Burglaries Rise In Corte Madera But Cops Tell How To Avoid Them

CORTE MADERANS, take warning! Burglary is on the rise in your town. Police Chief Frank Nelson and Inspector Harold Hockett report a 128 per cent increase in the number of break-ins through mid-May this year over the same period in 1958.

But for some strange reason, there have been no burglaries this year at the multi-million-dollar Corte Madera Shopping Center, which boasts 29 stores and services. A case of strength in unity, perhaps?

"Burglaries will never cease entirely," says Nelson, "but they can be kept to a minimum by following a few simple safety rules."

Here are some tips he has given to the merchants and businessmen of Corte Madera:

"Light is the burglar's greatest enemy. He will rarely work in a well-lighted establishment where any passerby is apt to observe him. Keep all doors and accessible windows well lighted from the outside. The light should shine toward the building so it will not blind or spotlight the patrolman. . . .

"Skylights should be sturdy and securely fastened, for there is usually no way for the patrolman to check these on his rounds.

"Make certain that all door and window locks are adequate and in good operating condition. . . .

"Leave cash registers empty and cash drawers open, so if there is a break-in you will not suffer additional damage costs in repairs to your equipment. . . .

"A good burglar alarm system, preferably the silent type that rings in another building is always your best bet."

Nelson also suggested that strips of luminous tape be placed across the entire width of lower windows and glass doors of business places. If the tape is severed during a break-in, he said, it will be noticed immediately by officers making their rounds.

UNITED MARKETS, INC., agreed this year to put in a road at the rear of its new store on San Anselmo's Red Hill Avenue.

The road has never been given a name, but members of the San Anselmo city council invariably refer to it as "Santa Claus Lane." Don't ask us why. If the councilmen know, they're not saying.

THE BANK OF AMERICA really knows how to pick 'em.

Two years ago at the College of Marin commencement, the bank presented awards in business administration and secretarial science, respectively, to Kenneth La Boube of San Anselmo and Barbara Kilborn of San Rafael. Both transferred to four-year colleges after graduation.

This month, Ken was graduated Summa Cum Laude from Claremont College and Barbara from San Jose State with departmental honors in accounting.

"A STARTLING and thought provoking program!" said a press release which came to the I-J recently. It announced that Dana Howard of Los Angeles would give three Bay Area talks on "A New Year's message from the great being — Diane of Venus."

Dana Howard, we learned, is the author of four books, including "My Trip to Venus" and "Diane, She Came From Venus." It cost a buck to hear him in Oakland and San Francisco, but they passed the hat during his appearance in Berkeley.

Wonder if he earned his flying saucer fare back to L.A.?

It Would Be Worthwhile To Try To Settle Differences With France

In our relations with France we are entering what may, unhappily, be a rough and difficult time. Immediately and specifically, this is because Gen. de Gaulle has raised a number of large and highly controversial issues.

Since the war which ended 15 years ago, Franco-American relations have been based on a premise that France, though it is counted among the victors, was in fact defeated, and that her colonial empire is in the process of dissolution, and that she is no longer a first class power.

OUR GOVERNMENT acquired a habit of not consulting France regularly and genuinely, and indeed of treating her with less intimacy and confidence not only than Great Britain, but even Western Germany.

The advent to power of Gen. de Gaulle was bound to mean, as it has meant, that France would not accept the lower position which she has occupied.

We must never forget that Gen. de Gaulle, to his everlasting honor, is the Frenchman who never surrendered and who never accepted defeat. It is a kind of historic justice that he should be the man who now insists that France must not be treated as a defeated and inferior power.

IN THIS CONTEXT we may look at the issues. They were raised diplomatically last summer and then in a note addressed to President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan on Sept. 24, 1958. This note has never been published. But it is said to set up three French objectives.

One is that NATO, which is now a regional pact, shall become a global alliance in which France, Britain, and America have the same policy and the same strategy in Europe, in Africa, and in Asia.

The second is that these three powers shall control collectively the use of nuclear weapons anywhere in the world — in the Far East quite as much as in Europe.

The third is that France shall have access to our nuclear secrets. This would mean that we undertook to enable France to become a nuclear power without the long and enormously expensive experimentation which Great Britain has gone through.

THE BASIC French argument here is that in the world today a first class power is by definition one with nuclear weapons, and that France must be treated in fact, not merely in form, as a first class power.

It is not quite clear to me whether these "objectives" should also be called "demands." But there is no doubt at all that the French government is serious, and this will entail serious discussion and negotiation.

The French government is backing up its policy by drawing away from the integration of military forces under Gen. Norstad and the NATO treaty organization. There is no question of French allegiance to the Atlantic pact as a military alliance. But it is not improbable that Gen. de Gaulle has a poor opinion, both politically and militarily, of the NATO establishment with its headquarters near Paris. Thus, it is likely that the existing NATO establishment would have to pay for a failure to satisfy Gen. de Gaulle.

CAN WE SATISFY him? We must put the question this way because in fact only the United States could satisfy him. It is obvious that we cannot satisfy him entirely. This Congress surely will not amend the law about communicating nuclear secrets. Nor is it possible for the President to make an unqualified commitment that we will in all circumstances support France in Algeria.

Where we can do something useful and important is to come to a solemn understanding with France, and of course with Great Britain also, about the use of nuclear weapons anywhere in the world.

The Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Larkspur-Corte Madera School to plan a summer recreation program for the Twin Cities.

242 Diplomas Awarded In Tam High Rite

A total of 242 graduates Sunday received diplomas in the Tamalpais High School commencement at Mead Theater with parents and friends watching under sunny clear skies.

With the processional starting at 5 o'clock until the last person had left the amphitheater, the ceremony went off as scheduled.

Paying tribute to parents, class valedictorian, Carl Joseph Piluso declared "Today, our parents have fulfilled an extremely important obligation; they have seen us through 12 years of school, from making our lunches to loaning us their cars. . . . We who are graduating today and entering upon the most important phase of our lives have first the obligation to you, our parents, to fulfill your hopes for us."

The diplomas were awarded by Trustee Chairman Howard I. McGill and by Principal Richard L. Campion.

Starkweather Rejected

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Nebraska's attorney general said today he will ask the state supreme court to set a new execution date for Charles Starkweather as soon as he receives official notice the U. S. Supreme Court denied a hearing to the convicted mass-slayer.

Atty. Gen. C. S. Beck said the notification probably would arrive here some time today.

The supreme court denial, set forth in a brief order yesterday, leaves Nebraska free to carry out the electrocution of the 20-year-old killer who confessed slaying 11 persons a year and a half ago.

Dog, Left In Auto, Chews His Way Out

A German shepherd dog, left for two and a half hours in an almost completely closed car in front of a Novato tavern in yesterday's searing heat, chewed a "wind wing" from its mountings and crawled through the small opening to freedom.

The big dog suffered cuts about the face and shoulders as he crawled through the jagged glass of the small window. He was treated at the Animal Clinic of Novato, where several stitches were taken in cuts over his right eye and on his lip.

Mel Morse, manager of the Marin County Humane Society, planned to confer today with Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich to determine whether the incident warrants issuance of a criminal complaint against Sgt. Robert F. Baugh, 38, of the 78th Field Maintenance Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, who, according to investigating officers, left the dog in the car.

The California Highway Patrol reported Baugh and a woman companion left the dog in the car in front of the bar at about 10:30 a.m. Investigating officers, called to the scene by a report that the dog was "chewing up the car," arrived at 12:30 p.m. just as the dog squeezed through the window.

The animal staggered over to the door of the bar, apparently looking for Baugh, the CHP report said.

The dog was reportedly left in the care of either Baugh or his companion while its owner was away.

A niece of the dog's owner picked up the animal after he was treated at the pet hospital.

Garbage Rules Established In Homestead

Commissioners of the Homestead Valley Sanitary District last night put the finishing touches on an ordinance which will require all residents of the area to arrange for regular disposal. It will also provide for a uniform collection system.

Board Secretary Gus Wolf said no garbage collection ordinance now is in force except a regulation imposed by the county health department.

He said also that both the Mill Valley Garbage Co. and Joseph De Martini from Sausalito work the Homestead district district without regulation or control.

Wolf said the first public hearing on the proposed ordinance will be held Aug 3, date of the board's regular meeting postponed from July 27.

He said that at the conclusion of public hearings, the board plans to negotiate for a collector to operate under the terms of the new ordinance.

'Y' Camp Still Has Openings

"Boys interested in summer camping may still register for YMCA vagabond day camp," camp committee chairman Erwin Farley announced today. "The current two-week session is operating at full capacity, but there are a few openings in the three sessions following the present one," he said.

The camp is held in Deer Park Canyon, Fairfax, with a program planned for younger boys 7 to 11. Crafts, group sports and swimming for both swimmers and non-swimmers are emphasized.

Dates for the remaining sessions are: July 6 to 17, July 20 to 31 and August 3 to 14.

Boys may still register for Camp Tolowa, the YMCA camp in the Santa Cruz mountains, Farley said. This camping program is planned for boys between the ages of 9 and 13. The camp will be held from August 2 to 11.

Hilarita Housing Report Scheduled

Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council members will hear a report on the current status of the peninsula's Hilarita Housing Project it its regular meeting tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in Belvedere, according to chairman Peter MacGowan.

Erwin Farley, deputy executive director of the Marin County Housing and Redevelopment Agency which controls Hilarita, will outline its present and future status.

Also on the agenda are rejorts on the Marinero and Red Hill multiple zoning, MacGowan said.

State Estimates 5,300 Live In Corte Madera

Corte Madera's population stands at 5,300, according to an official estimate of the state Department of Finance, Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow reported to the Corte Madera Town Council last night.

The new population figure is a 27 per cent increase over Corte Madera's October, 1957, census figure.

The increase has a monetary benefit. Corte Madera will have received $8,368 more in state allocations before the fiscal year ends on June 30 than had been anticipated, Brandow said.

In other business last night, the town council:

1. Approved the town having cleared weeds within 50 feet of the opening of the Corte Madera small lagoon as a flood control measure. Seventeen home owners had petitioned the council to do something about stagnation in the lagoon. The council declined to take further action.

2. Voted to ask the county board of supervisors to schedule a public hearing "as soon as possible, preferably in the evening" on the Corte Madera master plan. A hearing is now scheduled for Sept. 8 at 3 p.m.

3. Approved payment of two days overtime, 5 days of vacation, 10 full-time and 27 days of half-time for Reginald Tooker, 63, street maintenance man who became ill on April 21 and returned to work yesterday.

4. Approved a fill and grading plan for the 36-acre Fifer industrial tract on the west side of Highway 101 near Redwood High School, subject to conditions suggested by Town Manager Brandow Frank H. Deimel of San Rafael, representing the owners, said the fill and grading completion date is Oct. 31.

Dog Owner Sued For Bill

A couple of afghan hounds ran up a $567 bill for board and room at a Novato veterinary hospital, but the owner won't pay for it, according to a suit filed in Marin Municipal Court.

Dr. George E. McDaniel, operator of Stafford Veterinary Hospital filed the suit through attorney Clark M. Palmer Jr. of Novato against a Charles W. Beeler, the owner of the dogs. Palmer said Beeler lives "somewhere in the Peninsula." The dogs have been sold at a lien sale for a nominal amount that will not begin to pay for the bill, the attorney disclosed.

McDaniel says he agreed to care for Beeler's dogs at $3 per day last Aug. 13. And he continued to care for them for 189 days, until Feb. 18 this year. McDaniel charges that Beeler has not paid a cent of the bill.

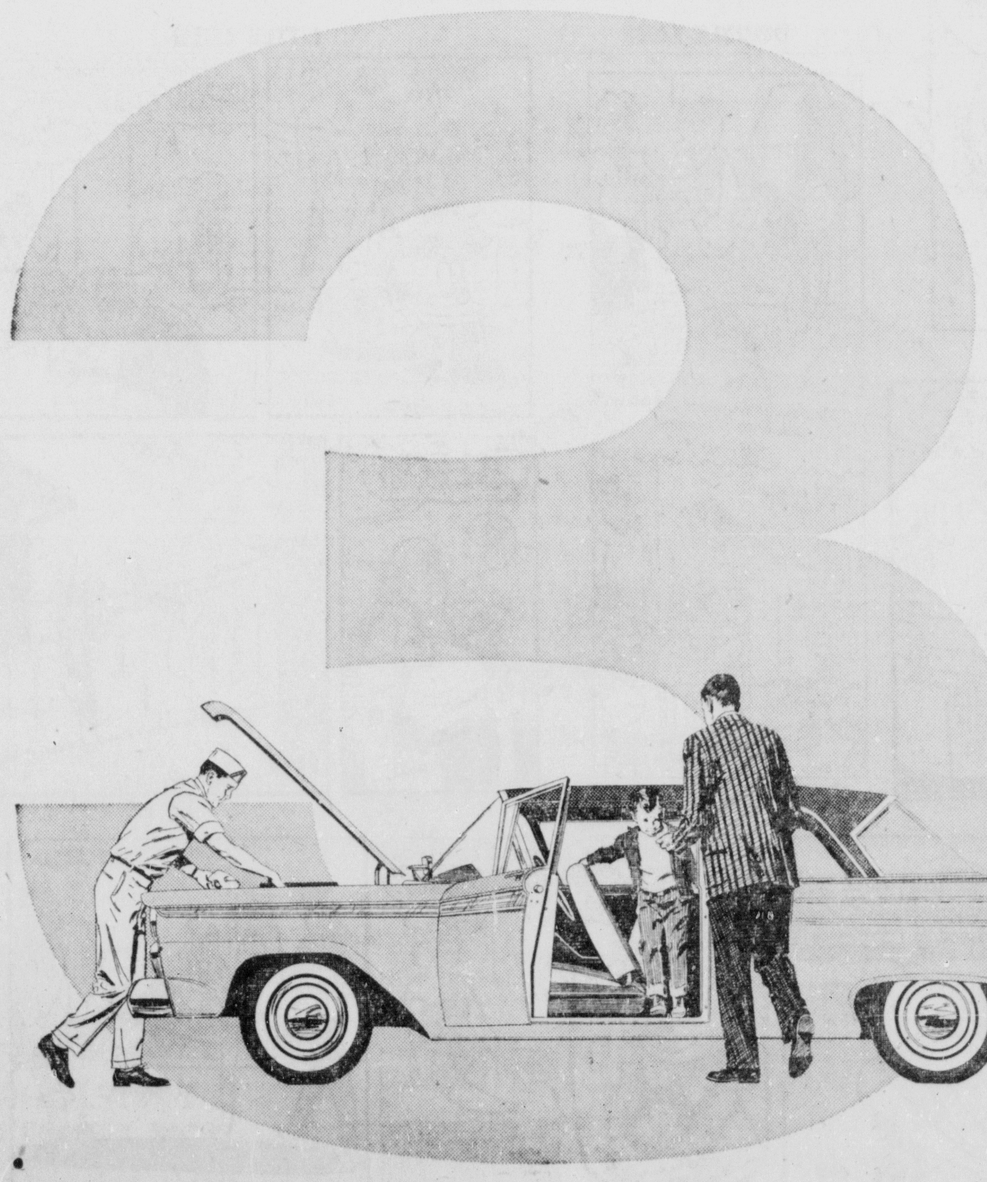
Here's why three new Chevrons give everyone a better buy

Pay only for the octanes you need!



It's just common-sense: With three grades you get a wider octane choice. No matter what you drive, there's a grade that's tailored to your car and pocketbook. You don't have to buy higher octane gasoline than you can use.

If you need extra high octane, new Chevron Custom Supreme is a grade above today's best premium gasolines—far, far ahead of any other in octane and actual road performance. At the white pump.

If you're a premium-user now, new Chevron Supreme has all the octanes needed for smooth going anywhere. No need to pay extra for octanes you can't use. At the blue pump.

If you want an economy regular, new Chevron Gasoline delivers new high octane—better performance for most motorists on the road—but at the regular price. Get the octanes you need without paying a premium! At the red pump.

All three Chevrons are clean-burning, of course! And all have carburetor-cleaning Detergent-Action along with other important fuel qualities to give full driving satisfaction. You get these extras plus the friendly service motorists rate "best in the West" in every independent survey.

Crisis Seems Near Climax In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina's government crisis appeared near a climax today as a move grew among military leaders to oust President Arturo Frondizi despite his cabinet's resignation.

Tension was heightened by Frondizi's refusal to accept the resignations of his three armed services secretaries, chief targets of the rebellious officers.

Open threats were voiced against Frondizi's regime by his military opponents. They reportedly feel they are strong enough to force out the embattled president unless he meets their demands for sweeping changes in his government and policies.

MILITARY JUNTA?

Leaders of the clique talked openly of installing a military junta to replace the president, a landslide victor 16 months ago in Argentina's first free election in more than a decade.

Striving to cope with the darkening crisis, Frondizi told Interior Minister Alfredo Vitolo, long an administration spokesman, to meet leaders of Argentina's political parties today to sound them out on the situation. This aroused speculation Frondizi was considering forming a coalition government.

Vitolo told newsmen the mass cabinet resignation yesterday indicated changes in the government's policies. He did not say what the changes would be, but observers believed they might have come too late to appease the aroused military.

REVOLUTIONARY ROLES

Many of the military opponents of Frondizi's administration had key roles in the revolution which toppled dictator Juan Peron four years ago.

They have accused Frondizi's administration of failing to fulfill its election promises and of permitting Peron supporters, leftists and some Communists to infiltrate the government. They also contend the president has not acted firmly enough to solve the nation's many problems.

The president has bowed to military pressure before, replacing a foreign minister and three cabinet secretaries. But the military feels he has not gone far enough.

CURRENT CRISIS

The current crisis developed after the publication last week of a purported pre-election agreement between Peron and one of Frondizi's closest advisers. The president denied any such agreement, but a group of retired military leaders tried to raise a revolt against him.

That attempt failed and the leaders were arrested or went into hiding. Dismissal of Undersecretary of War Manuel Raimundez appeared to ease the crisis, but it built up again yesterday as dissident officers gathered support.

Book Pictures Nixon As Driving President

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A new biography of Vice President Richard M. Nixon pictures him as a man who would bring drive and confidence to the presidency.

This is the way the book answers its own question as to what kind of president Nixon would make:

". . . He would be perhaps the hardest-driving chief executive and the most controversial since Theodore Roosevelt. There would be nothing haphazard, nothing bland about his administration, nor any doubt about its political identity. There would be holdovers from the Eisenhower regime, but under Nixon they would move more energetically."

15-MONTH TASK

Earl Mazo, who covers Washington politics for the New York Herald Tribune, wrote the biography which is titled "Richard Nixon, a Political and Personal Portrait." Mazo took a six-month leave of absence in 1957 to produce the book, and ended up devoting 15 months to it.

He interviewed Nixon more than 20 times, talked with about 300 other persons about the Vice President and compressed the result in 300 pages.

The book can be described as neither an unfriendly book nor a campaign document.

Mazo gives a play-by-play account of events leading to the Vice President's renomination in 1956 and of Harold E. Stassen's campaign to knock him off the ticket.

ODDS ON WINNING

The book reports that President Eisenhower reminded his junior partner that no vice president had been elected to the White House for more than a century. The President offered a cabinet job and indicated, according to Mazo, that Nixon could have his choice, except for the state department.

Mazo also reports that Nixon actually decided in March, 1956, to get out of politics and accept a job in private business but was persuaded to defer his announcement. Nixon himself is quoted as saying that the Stassen drive and the reaction to it were probably decisive in changing his mind.

'RIGHT PLACE'

Mazo depicts Nixon, the politician, as a sort of fatalist who believes he was elected to the House, the Senate and the vice presidency because he "was in the right place at the right time."

Nixon is described as ambitious but less so than many people believe.

"In fact," Mazo writes, "if he is not thoroughly satisfied that he is wanted, if he feels that he would have to strong-arm his way to the nomination, he will not run."

Eisenhower is reported to have told Nixon that he believes it would be improper to endorse him or anyone else for the presidential nomination.

The Vice President is said to view the economic issue as the big one in 1960 and to believe that the GOP must stick by its basically conservative position regardless of the consequences.

Long Granted Hearing In Try For Freedom

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—Earl K. Long battled a step further back toward the Louisiana governor's seat today by winning a public hearing Friday on whether he is legally held as insane.

Dist. Judge Robert D. Jones signed a writ of habeas corpus ordering the director of state hospitals to produce Long in his court at Covington, La., at 10 a.m. June 26 for the hearing.

The 63-year-old Long, committed to Southeastern State Hospital as a schizophrenic paranoid, will remain in custody until he is brought into court.

But should Jones then rule that he has been illegally committed, Long will have the legal power to grab the reins of government including command of the state police and national guard. Consensus is there will be "hell to pay" if he succeeds.

The allegations in the petition for the habeas corpus writ included one that he had been given a hasty examination in a "circus-like atmosphere" in the back seat of a police car with a crowd pressing around and two doctors talking to him for only a few minutes.

Two Districts Get Federal School Funds

Two Marin school districts are among several hundred in California which will receive federal funds, to match local contributions, for special science, mathematics and foreign language projects.

The Marin districts are the Ross elementary district, which will receive $2,127.03 in federal funds and put up a like amount for three projects, one each in science, mathematics and foreign language, and the Novato Unified School District, which is to receive $3,850 for a language project.

The federal contributions are made under the National Defense Education Act.

Approval of the fund grants to the Ross and Novato districts was announced Friday by Dr. Roy E. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction.

"In contrast to his controversial novel, 'Doctor Zhivago,' Pasternak's new book of poems will be published," the source said.

Pasternak's novel on the Russian Revolution was not published here although it was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature. It contained many passages unfavorable to the Communists. Pasternak rejected the prize.

Watch Found In Shark Killed Off Catalina

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Two large sharks were killed in Southern California costal waters yesterday, and one had a man's watch in its stomach.

A boat captain, Joe St. Denis, said the watch was badly deteriorated.

The shark was killed with four blasts from a 30-30 rifle about 11 miles off Catalina Island. The watch was given to an unidentified jeweler who took it with him to attempt to identify it.

The shark was 12 and one-half feet long and weighed an estimated 750 pounds. It was towed to the island and cut open.

The second shark was more than 11 feet long, weighed 776 pounds and was captured a mile and one-half off the Balboa pier when it became tangled in a fishing net and was harponed.

News of the two killings came as authorities stepped up efforts against sharks, one of which killed a skin diver off San Diego nine days ago. Police in the area said they doubted the watch could have belonged to the diver, Robert L. Pamperin, 33, since he was not wearing any jewelry.

Lifeguards in rescue lifeboats have been issued rifles to kill any sharks, and the Marine Corps planned to establish a helicopter shark patrol.

Just Follow This Formula, If You Can

Pity the Corte Madera property owner who wants to build on a lot between 6,000 and 7,500 square feet in size.

Last night the Corte Madera Town Council introduced a zoning ordinance amendment which would set a maximum area of such a lot that may be covered by buildings.

To discover what this is, the prospective builder must use the equation "Y=55—.0033 X." In the equation, "Y" is the maximum per cent of area which may be covered by structures; "X" is the area of the site in square feet.

Planning Commission Chairman John Adlard (with a chuckle) admitted that he was the author of the equation.

For a lot under 6,000 square feet, the maximum area to be covered by buildings is 35 per cent. The amendment is intended to apply to lots which were of legal minimum of 7,500 square feet.

The Corte Madera Town Council will hold a public hearing on the zoning amendment at 7:30 p.m. on Aug. 3.

Mosk Rules On Hospital Care

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Unless recipients of old age security benefits meet hospital entrance standards set by their home counties, the counties need not provide hospital care for them, Atty Gen. Stanley Mosk ruled yesterday.

To defray hospital care costs in such cases, counties may require liens on the real property of hospital applicants and may deny them non-emergency admission until such liens are executed, the opinion said. Liens are not required on personal property, said Deputy Atty. Gen. Jose B. Harvey, who prepared the report.

Newell 'Satisified,' Will Stay As U. C. Cage Coach

BERKELEY (AP)—"I'm satisfied and all set now."

So said Pete Newell today after deciding to continue as basketball coach at the University of California, where his clubs won three Pacific Coast Conference titles and the 1959 NCAA crown.

Newell, unhappy over some questions of athletic policy at California, had considered a move to the University of Washington.

But after conferring with athletic director Greg Englehard and Bud Hastings, executive director of the Associated Students group at California, Newell announced yesterday he would remain.

Never was it explained exactly what the objectionable elements of policy were, but they apparently were recruiting and other elements of running varsity athletics.

"We went over the problems I felt existed and I think it's pretty well straightened away," Newell asserted.

The Washington job had opened two weeks ago when Tippy Dye resigned there to become athletic director at Wichita University. Newell said George Briggs, Washington's athletic director and a personal friends, discussed the job with him in general terms.

Englehard said the differences arose with the switch by California from the defunct PCC to the new Athletic Assn. of Western Universities which includes Cal, UCLA, Washington and Southern California.

The PCC spelled out policy while the new Big Four calls for each school for the most part to write its own policy.

Pirates, Beaten By Rookie, Face Sam Jones Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Sam Jones, speed-balling right hander with an 8-6 record, will play the key role tonight when the San Francisco Giants take on the slugging Pittsburgh Pirates in the second game of a three-tilt series.

If Jones can show anything resembling the form displayed yesterday by rookie Eddie Fisher in humbling the Pirates, 4-1, then the Giants' mound staff will be at its peak strength of the year.

Opposing Jones on the mound for the Pirates will be Vern Law, who has a 7-4 record.

The Giants showed remarkable recuperative powers in playing a perfect defensive game against Pittsburgh after their 13-3 shellacking at the hands of Milwaukee the night before. They gave young Fisher some of the finest defense of the year — featuring first baseman Orlando Cepeda and right fielder Willie Kirkland. And the bench came to life with a bang at the plate.

"It was my greatest thrill," said the 22-year-old Fisher, who is educated to be a biology teacher. "That catcher Jim Hegan took a lot of the pressure off."

Hegan, with 13 years in the majors, said he thought the kid looked real good.

"He has a fine knuckler," said Hegan. "And he mixes them up pretty good. I was surprised that his fast ball zipped in like it did."

Giant coaches Wes Westrum and Bill Posedel and Hegan agreed that Fisher, who came here from Phoenix with a 10-4 record in the Pacific Coast League, looked a lot like Early Wynn in his delivery.

The Pirates agreed that the rookie was good.

"That kid has a lot of fine stuff," said third baseman Don Hoak. Smokey Burgess said that Fisher tossed only a couple of knucklers to him.

And Dick Schofield complained: "The way I'm hitting it doesn't make any difference what they throw."

Fisher went seven innings before being taken out for a pinch hitter. During his time on the mound, he allowed only three hits, all singles. One came in the first inning and two hits in the top of the seventh brought in the lone Pirate run.

Then the Giants went to work on Pirate starter Ronnie Kline. Jackie Brandt led off with a double. Andre Rodgers struck out but Dusty Rhodes, pinchhitting for Hegan, singled Brandt to third. Jackie scored a moment later on a wild pitch.

Fisher was supposed to come to the plate next.

"I looked around for a pinchhitter and there was Fisher already to go up to the plate," said manager Bill Rigney. "I told him to take a rest, we have better hitters sitting on the bench."

So Leon Wagner came to the plate and clouted a tremendous triple against the left center field fence. Jim Davenport followed with a single and Kirkland capped the rally with a double.

Four runs crossed the plate and that was all that was needed as Al Worthington pitched shutout ball in relief.

Strikeout Feat Pleases Koufax

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Sandy Koufax was a happy young man today despite missing the National League record for strikeouts by one man last night when he fanned 16 Philadelphians while the Dodgers were scoring a 6-2 victory.

"Of course I would have liked to have had the record or equalled it," the dark-haired young pitcher said afterward. "But I was very glad to have won the game. The way I started out this year, I'm surprised I didn't end up in the minors."

Koufax bettered the previous high of 12 strikeouts this season set by Don Drysdale of the Dodgers and Sam Jones of the Giants.

Turley Nearly Blows Big Lead Against A's

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron are beginning to look like Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron again for the New York's defending World Champion Yankees. But who would ever recognize Bob Turley?

The big right-hander, last year's top pitcher in the majors and the American League's top winner with a 21-7 record, failed to last again last night, almost blowing a five-run lead as Mantle and Skowron powered the Yankees to an 11-6 victory at Kansas City.

Mantle drove in six runs with his 16th and 17th homers and a triple. Skowron belted home a pair with his 14th homer. But it was Bobby Shantz, the stubby southpaw, who kept the A's from keeping pace, gaining a 2-2 record with five innings of two-hit, shutout relief.

Turley, who has won but six while losing seven, matching his losses of last season, gave up five consecutive hits and four runs as the A's cut the Yankees' lead to 7-6 in the fifth inning before Shantz hurried in.

It was the only game scheduled in the A.L. and put the fifth-place champs within three games of first and within a half game of Baltimore and Detroit, tied for third.

In the only National League games scheduled, second place San Francisco beat Pittsburgh 4-1, moving within a single game of idle Milwaukee, and Los Angeles defeated Philadelphia 6-2. Dodger left-hander Sandy Koufax set a major league record for a night game by striking out 16.

Mantle and Skowron drove in five of the first seven Yankee runs. The Mick, who led A.L. home run hitters in three of the past four sessions, now is within seven of major leaguer leader Harmon Killebrew of Washington (24) after his first two-homer game of the year.

He got his first with the bases empty in the first inning off loser Ray Herbert (4-7). Then, after Skowron's blast in the fourth inning, Mantle chased the A's right-hander with a two-run triple as the Yankees scored four in the fifth. His other home run, with one on, was a shot over the fence in deep right-center off ex-Yankee right-hander Tom Sturdivant in the seventh inning.

That gave Mantle four home runs and 11 RBI in the last seven games, his best spurt of the season.

Skowron has done even better. The Moose has hammered four home runs and driven in eight in the last four games for 52 RBI, one shy of A.L. leader Killebrew. Mantle has 44 RBI, tying Washington's Jim Lemon for fifth place.

FEWER DEER BUT MORE BIRDS BAGGED IN YEAR

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Deer hunters were 10 per cent less successful last year than they were the year before but hunters seeking most varieties of game birds had a good year in 1958, the state Department of Fish and Game revealed today.

The department's annual game take survey showed that 58,669 bucks were shot last year, compared with 65,214 in 1957.

Increases ranging from 3 per cent to 287 per cent were recorded in the bag of pheasants, quail, doves, chuckar partridges, sage hens, sierra and ruffled grouse, jackrabbits, cottontail and brush rabbits, geese, ducks and jacksnipe.

The biggest percentage increase was in chuckar partridge, where the bag jumped from 7,000 to 28,600. Doves led the list in total bag with 3,399,100.

Decreases were recorded in band-tailed pigeons, tree squirrels, bear and wild boar as well as deer.

Crippled Kids May Help Colts To Title

BALTIMORE (AP)—Some crippled children may provide the incentive to bring Baltimore its second National Football League title.

Every day at 5 p.m. a group of Colts invades the quiet grounds of Kernan Hospital. For the next hour or so the robust athletes exercise at or are tested by equipment designed to help the handicapped.

The work goes on under the watchful eyes of Bill Neill and Ed Block.

"We theorized," said Neill, the hospital's director of physical therapy, "that the physical medicine we used for out patients here could also be used to prevent the Colts from suffering injuries."

Block, the Colts' trainer and an assistant to Neill in the off season, likes to refer to the equipment at Kernan as his "secret weapon."

"In analyzing the needs of each individual player we locate the stress and strain areas and with secret weapons we can strengthen those areas," Block said.

Block and Neill both point with pride at what their program has done for defensive end Ordell Braase. Said Neill, "he has increased his chest girth by more than an inch and his upper arm by half an inch.

"Block and I had Ordell act out what he does when rushing the passer. His actions, and where he needs strength, is what we've been working on.

"He will be much stronger and more agile this year."

Other Colts taking part in the program are backs Johnny Unitas, Lenny Moore, Lenny Lyes and L. G. Dupre and linemen Art Donovan, Jim Mutscheller, Dic Syzmanski, Leo Sanford and Gino Marchetti.

Where do the children fit into the picture?

"The Colts and the patients, mostly children, are good mental therapy for each other," said Neill.

Rafer Johnson Out Of AAU Decathlon

KINGSBURG, Fresno County (AP)—The national AAU decathlon will be held here Thursday and Friday nights without its star attraction, world record holder Rafer Johnson.

Johnson said in Los Angeles yesterday that his back, injured two weeks ago in an auto accident, is still bothering him.

Johnson hoped he would be able to compete in Philadelphia July 18-19 against Vasily Kuznetsov, Soviet Russian star whom Johnson defeated July 28 in Moscow with 8,302 points. Since then Russia claims Kuznetsov scored 8,357 points May 17 to surpass Johnson's mark by 55 points.

Johnson will be qualified to compete at the Philadelphia clash between Russian and American decathlon teams without taking part in the meet here, said Pincus Sober of the AAU.

The lists closed yesterday for the match here with 22 entrants. Final entries were Michael Herman of the Pioneer Club in New York, who is ranked fourth with 7,977 points; C. K. Yang of Formosa, now studying in the United States, and Dave Edstrom of the University of Oregon.

Dodgers May Have Slugger In Howard

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Frank Howard, a 22-year-old outfielder with tremendous hitting potential, could be the batting star Los Angeles is seeking to make the Dodger fans really happy.

When the Brooklyn franchise was transferred here, the club believed that Duke Snider, a Los Angeles-product, might be the idol baseball clubs find so helpful in filling their stadiums.

But Snider had a bad knee and never has come up to the slugging power he displayed at Brooklyn. And as a left-handed hitter, he also found the Coliseum to his disadvantage.

OHIO STATE STAR

Howard's prowess was known when he was playing baseball and basketball at Ohio State and virtually every major league club that could afford to get in on the bidding made an attempt to sign him. The Dodgers have not revealed officially how much of a bonus they paid Howard, but the estimates run around $100,000.

One of the biggest men in baseball, Howard stands 6 feet, 6½ inches and right now he weighs 240 pounds. No man that big has been outstanding success as a hitter, some baseball men point out.

Howard spent his rookie season as a minor leaguer with Green Bay where he hit 37 homers, scored 104 runs and batted in 119 runs to lead the league in all those departments while batting .333.

Called up at the end of the season, Howard in his first appearance with the parent club hit a homer at Connie Mack Stadium that cleared the rooftop.

In spring training after a slow start, Howard began belting the ball with the same authority he showed at Green Bay. But the Dodgers felt he still needed more experience and sent him to Victoria of the Texas League, where he could again receive the tutelage of Pete Reiser who managed him at Green Bay.

When the Dodgers began slumping on their last road trip, General Manager E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi decided the solution would be to call up Howard even though he might not be quite ready for the majors.

"I felt that Frank could get us at least an occasional long ball hit. What prompted my thinking was the way Dick Stuart of the Pirates was hurting us," Bavasi said. "Stuart strikes out a lot, but he also gets enough long hits to make up for it.

"The Dodgers need a guy who can break up games, too, and Howard looks like the answer."

So the big fellow flew up from Texas last Monday and was put into the lineup immediately. He's gotten a few hits and against Milwaukee in five games, his best was a bases-loaded triple that drove in three runs.

San Rafael Swim Meet Set June 30

First annual San Rafael Recreation Department Invitational Swimming Meet will be held June 30 at the San Rafael High School pool, it was announced today by Director Joe Rodota.

Entries must be submitted to Rodota at the San Rafael City Hall before Thursday of this week. "We can't accept any post entries," the director said, "so any children who plan to compete had better meet the Thursday deadline."

Distinctive gold, silver and bronze medals will be presented for the first three places and a perpetual trophy for the 100-yard open freestyle for both boys and girls, Rodota said.

Competition for boys and girls will be divided into four age groups — high school, 13 and 14 years, 11 and 12 and 10 and under.

They Call It Major League Ball, But It's Bush League To Connolly

CONNOLLY

Nearing the halfway mark in the National League pennant chase, I'm more and more convinced it isn't a big league, nor a major league, nor "tops" in baseball, that is shattering all west coast attendance figures.

Baseball fans really and truly are being fed an inferior brand of baseball, much lower in standard than the old Coast League used to be, excepting for a few exceptional players and pitchers.

Baseball, the staid old percentage game, has "sold out" to the big inning, the long clout and the heavy sock.

Kids are sacrificed on the altar of greed today, being asked to do things they can't; make plays they don't understand, jump in and out of airplanes and cross the country overnight, eat at all hours of the night and day, sleep whenever they get a chance and be ready to give their all under all sorts of conditions.

Did it ever occur to you that the so-called slumps and injuries of ball players today could result from a harem-scarem schedule that taxes even the youngest and strongest of men?

I TRULY believe that Giant players get tired. They couldn't play such stupid and exasperating ball as they sometimes do, if they were fresh, awake or on the ball.

The games the Giants have played are the most exciting the fans have ever seen.

But the games are bush league. Managers get so fuzzy they overlook the basic principles of the game. Very few of them will tolerate the hit and run, the bunt or play for one run. They remind me of the bridge player who wants a grand slam all the time; the golfer who is shooting for a hole-in-one and if he misses picks up and goes to the next hole.

It's tragic sometimes for an oldtimer to see the goings on in organized baseball today and call it big league. It isn't. It's a very poor imitation.

BALL PLAYERS today are lucky to be allowed to walk up to the plate without a coach telling them to hop, skip or jump sidewise. Once at the plate the player has two thirds of his attention on the third base coach, and the other one third on the pitched ball. All the individuality that once was a part of the sport has disappeared.

A batter is told to leave a pitched ball go by, one he likes; make no effort to hit behind the runner, but hit when the coach or manager says, and then only aim at the fences.

Last week the Giants had Mike McCormick on the mound. Mike sacrificed Hobie Landrith to third base for the first out and Hobie scored on a long fly. That was the one run the Giants held onto until the eighth when a Cincy Red home run tied up the ball game. In their half of the eighth, Willie Mays was on third base and Orlando Cepeda on first base with one out. Mays is the finest and fastest baserunner on the ball club. With Daryl Spencer at the plate and old Don Newcombe pitching, did the Giants try to tie the ball game at 2-2?

NOPE, THEY allowed Spencer to hit straight away and he did it on the first pitch for a double play to end the game.

That bit of skull duggery proved to me that Skipper Bill Rigney is flaunting percentage baseball. He wants the crowd pleasing home run or long drive to score the run and resents being told that one run at a time pays off just as well at the end of the season as six or seventh. It depends on when you get that one run.

So I say to you just watch the Giants and Pirates this week, but don't expect either club to play percentage baseball. It is a "show" they want to put on. Win the game, sure, but win it spectacularly and sensationally. Who wants to win it with a sacrifice?

Five men took a Saturday morning oral examination for appointment to the San Anselmo Police Department as patrolmen and four passed, reported City Manager Arthur W. Brewer.

Results will be submitted to the city council at its July 14 or earlier, if a special meeting is called.

A patrolmain's salary ranges from $395 to $481 a month.

The four who passed, in the order which they ranked, were: George Alberigi, 25, of 527 Easterby street, Sausalito, member of the Sausalito police force; William F. The one who failed was a 27-year-old Eureka man.

Eight were eligible to take the oral examination but only five showed up.

The examiners were Capt. Theodore Parnow of the California Highway Patrol's San Rafael office, Inspector Arthur Lyman of the Berkeley police force, and Sgt. Vernon Peters of Oakland Police Department.

Bill To Speed Up Ballot Counting Goes To Governor

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate has approved a measure to speed up election returns.

A 31-1 vote sent the bill to the governor, who is expected to sign it into law. It calls for continuous counting of ballots beginning as soon as polls close.

Sponsored by a committee of newspaper editors, the bill by Sen. James A. Cobey (D-Merced) is expected to provide semi-official statewide results within two days after elections. In some races in the past, it has taken two weeks or longer for an official verdict.

The Senate action came with approval of Assembly amendments to the measure.

Cobey said the bill represents "a tremendous step forward in getting election results earlier."

The only dissenting vote was cast by Sen. Stanford C. Shaw (D-Ontario), who complained the continuous count would be too great a strain on canvassing staffs.

Six Mill Valley Scouts Receive Eagle Awards

With about 500 spectators present, six Mill Valley Eagle Scouts received their Eagle badges and a Homestead Valley Boy Scout received the Scout Honor Medal in ceremonies in the Cushing Memorial Theater on Mt. Tamalpais Saturday evening.

The six Mill Valley boys who received the highest award in Scouting — all members of Mill Valley Post 28 — were Leland Donnan, 14; Jack Martin, 14; Louis Wayers, 15; John Meacham, 14; William Bishell, 16 and Irvin Sutley, 15.

The Boy Scout Honor Medal was presented Alan Polanshek, 12, who was recognized by the National Boy Scout Council for heroism in saving a playmate from drowning at Sausalito last December.

Storrs H. Smith, Marin Boy Scout Council executive gave the badges to the boys' mothers who in turn pinned the coveted badge on their sons.

The boys returned the compliment by presenting their mothers with miniature Eagle badges.

Mill Valley's post is sponsored by a group of citizens, mostly parents interested in Scouting, in place of sponsorship by a local service club. This point was stressed by Prentiss Goldstone of Mill Valley, chairman of the group, calling it "a unique method of sponsorship."

Young Polanshek was presented his medal by Dr. David G. Schmidt, incoming president of the Marin Council of Boy Scouts.

Principal speaker was David R. Brower, executive director of the Sierra Club who gave the Eagle Scout challenge and spoke of the importance of conservation of natural resources.

The Navy's Treasure Island male chorus sang.

New Faces, Wares To Be Noted At Marin Art And Garden Fair

New faces and wares will be noted among familiar perrenials at the community booths at the Marin Art and Garden Fair opening in Ross next Wednesday night, July 1, for a five-day run at the Art and Garden Center temporary county fairground.

Members of the Grape Booth of Sunny Hills will staff a decorative booth offering baskets and fresh grapes for sale to fair visitors. Coordinating the Guild's activities in the fair participation will be the following four members of Sunny Hill's board of directors: Mrs. Walter Zweig, who is in charge of the Grape Festival set for the first week in October; Mesdames Samuel D. Archibald, Donald L. Jeffries, and John M. Reichmuth.

Bishop and Mrs. Carl S. Coombs of the Church of the Latter Day Saints are directing participation in the show of the Greenbrae Ward of the church with a booth selling hot dogs, soft drinks and hot chocolate. They will be assisted by members of the following organizations in the ward in decorating, supplying and staffing the booth: the Sunday School, the primary group, the Mutual Improvement Assn. and the Relief Society.

Ross Valley Kiwanis, recently chartered in Marin County, will join with other service clubs at the fair. Selling sno-cones in a booth decorated with flowers will be its chairman and second vice president, M. William Maier, a San Anselmo real estate broker and the members and wives: President and Mrs. James Lewis, first vice president and Mrs. Sanford McLaughlin, Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Morrison, John Wilcutt, Roy Kopf, John Hourihan and others.

San Geronimo Lions will take and sell framed polaroid photographs of fair visitors at a booth in the barn area. A small real live pony, amusing background props, or just the lovely Art and Garden setting will add to the interest of the pictures. Among members at work will be Messrs. and Mesdames D. W. Dawson, Jack Nunn, John Strahm, Vernon Gilstrap, Fred Horner, John Keilty and others on the club's roster.

Something entirely new to this year's fair will be the booth staffed by members of the Marin Arts Quartet. Lovers of fine music, the group which includes Charles Meacham and William Pynchon, violin; Albert White, viola; Jean Mattos Maguire, violincello (all professionals), will indirectly "sell" the series of concerts the quartet has scheduled this coming season. Mrs. Norman Beals, manager of the group, and friends Jack and Mickey Foisie, all of Mill Valley, will be on hand with booklets, a cultural spiel and information.

Others taking part for the first time include Camp Fire Girls who will sell the canned peanuts they are so famed for, as well as fresh made-on-the-spot peanut brittle, smack off the cool-off board. Board members Mesdames Frank Boyer, Robin Galloway, Edward Zeller, assisted by council members, will coordinate the literally hundreds of Marin's Camp Fire Girls who will be staffers.

Also, the many Senior Citizens groups in Marin will be on hand for the first time with a variety of homemade wares. The men and women have fashioned about a thousand aprons for barbecue or teaparty, novel potholers, handkerchiefs, unusual totebags, hand-knitted and hand-crocheted throw rugs which they will proudly offer for sale.

Among these attractions looked for and expected by regular fair visitors will be the free demonstrations and lectures contributed to the fair by the Decorations Guild of the Marin Art and Garden Center. In the Teasel room, located in the Northgate building, the following daily 11 a.m. series on flower arrangements has been arranged: July 2—Mrs. Edwin Walter of Atherton, winner of the award of distinction at the recent San Francisco Garden Club flower show; July 3—Katherine Eubanks, Larkspur floral decorator; July 4—Kenneth Osaki of Mill Valley, historian and culturist of bonzai; July 5 — Mrs. Robert L. Tuckey of Kentfield, longtime member of the Art and Garden Center and a founder of the Decorations Guild, winner of ribbons in many flower shows, who will simplify the intricacies of flower arrangements for the lay public. All arrangers have contributed their services to the event.

In early fall the Robertsons expect to welcome their former Sleepy Hollow neighbors, the Ned Leiberts, upon the family's motor tour across the United States. The Leiberts departed by plane Saturday night, bound for Europe.

AT MAGLADRY HOME

Chapter NE, P.E.O., Holds Final Meeting Before Recess

Chapter NE, P.E.O., held its final meeting before the summer recess Friday, June 11, when Mrs. George William Magladry opened her home at 7 Pidgeon Hollow road, San Rafael. A hostess in absentia was the vice president, Mrs. W. D. Oberholtzer, who departed that morning by motor for Oregon State College where her daughter, Polly, had just completed her sophomore year. Polly made Alpha Lambda, national honorary scholastic society, in her freshman year. She is a member of Theta sorority.

SUMMONED TO TEXAS

Presiding was past president, Mrs. A. G. Stoll. Acting president, Mrs. Ilion T. Jones, had been summoned to Dallas, Tex., earlier in the week, called by the unexpected death of her mother, Mrs. R. E. Prince, 90, June 8. Final obsequies were held June 10. Mrs. Jones and her husband, Dr. Ilion T. Jones, were guests while in Dallas in the homes of her brother and a sister of Dr. Jones.

Mrs. Magladry had beautifully appointed luncheon tables in the patio and dining room. Present were 22 members and five guests. Plaques of hydrangeas were used as table decorations.

NORTHERN P.E.O. HOME

Among the guests was Mrs. A. M. Olinger, who heads the state board for a second P.E.O. home for retiring members.

Mrs. Olinger told the members a substantial sum has been earmarked for the home. (The spring rummage sale netted $3,000. This was held at Larkin Hall in San Francisco.)

Option has been taken on Palo Alto property at 950 University avenue. This is the former home of Dr. and Mrs. Lucas. Several P.E.O. families are residents in the neighborhood and the home itself was last owned by a P.E.O. member.

Mrs. Olinger described the residence as being adaptable for present needs and expansible for the future. It stands on a lot 200 x 250 feet and has a large swimming pool. Modern plumbing and many repairs and improvements have been made to the structurally sound residence. It is flanked by many of Palo Alto's beautiful older homes.

Speaker of the afternoon was Barbara Bruff, a student at U.C. Barbara told of her experiences in Germany last summer when she represented San Rafael High as an exchange student. She showed pictures of her "family" in Germany, the grandparents and their scholarly grandson, an orphan.

Barbara also showed colored slides taken as the students sailed from Montreal. Projected were many scenes she had especially enjoyed. The Brussels Fair was included.

Miss Bruff has given her talk before many assemblies and service clubs.

OTHER GUESTS

Other guests included Mrs. Kenneth McKinnon, sister of a new member, Mrs. Albert Brinckerhoff; Miss Sheila Bagshaw, a sophomore at U.C. and daughter of NE member, Mrs. John Bagshaw; (Miss Sheila, home economics award winner at SRHS, has switched her major to nursing.)

Mrs. Magladry was assisted in hostess duties by her sister, Mrs. James Powers of Los Altos. Their P.E.O. mother, often present when Marilyn entertains, sent greetings to the P.E.O. family from New York.

FALL HOSTESSES

Mrs. John H. Hemingway and Mrs. Joseph Sheeks will be hostesses at the opening September meeting at the former's home in Mill Valley. Summer vacation experiences will be related. Mrs. Magladry is program chairman.

June 30 Reciprocity meeting will be held in San Francisco, attended by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Sigge Hjort and Mrs. Stoll. The latter represents the courtesy committee for Reciprocity which meets the last Tuesday of each month. Martena Smith was speaker at the May meeting, giving the address she had given at state convention.

Mrs. Stephen Bruff, reporting on Cottey College, in Nevada, Mo., P.E.O. endowed women's college, said 99 seniors had been graduated this month representing many states and countries.

WELCOME TEACHER

Marin P.E.O's will welcome a new member of the Tiburon-Belvedere teaching staff this fall. She is Miss Marie Durfey, 21, a graduate of U.S.C and a member of Chapter JK, California, since 1957. Daughter of a P.E.O. mother, Miss Durfey has resided in Downey, Calif. for 17 years.

Miss Durfey received her general elementary teaching credentials from U.S.C., June 11. Her major since 1955 has been in psychology. Miss Durfey is a Tri Delt. In July her family will visit in Belvedere. She expects to make her home with a Tri Delt sister, Mrs. Charles Keppel in San Anselmo.

Mary Lynn Chapman Is Bride Of Charles H. Wix Of Long Beach

Married Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in the First Baptist Church in San Anselmo were Mary Lynn Chapman of Mill Valley and Charles Harris Wix of Long Beach, Calif.

White gladioli, stock and candles adorned the church when Harvey M. Chapman of Mill Valley gave his daughter in marriage in double ring rites performed by the Rev. Jerald Traeger.

The bride's ballerina length gown was fashioned with bouffant skirt of white silk organza and Chantilly lace bodice having a sabrina neckline and fingertip sleeves. She wore a shoulder length veil with ruffled edge that had been sent from Germany to her sister-in-law when she became the bride of Mary's only brother, Philip H. Chapman of Mill Valley. The veil fell from a lace pill box studded with pearls. Her flowers were a shower of lilies of the valley and white rosebuds.

Gowned identically in aqua nylon dresses having scoop necklines, flared back panels and cummerbunds were the maid of honor, the bride's sister, Carol P. Chapman of Mill Valley, and the bridesmaids, Carol Conger of Mill Valley and Mrs. George Norwood of Pacific Grove, Calif. Their headdresses were bands of white carnations, the same flowers as those of their shower bouquets.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Wix of Ceres, Calif., was George Norwood of Pacific Grove, and ushers were Carl Moberg of San Francisco, and the bridegroom's only brother, Robert Wix of Modesto.

Mrs. Chapman chose for the occasion an avocado silk print dress with linen jacket, a matching velvet hat trimmed with white leaves, and white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a powder blue Swiss voile dress trimmed with lace. Each had a corsage of phalaenopsis orchids.

A reception for 100 guests was held immediately after the ceremony at the San Rafael Improvement Club. The three tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, and Mrs. Charles Hanna was in charge of the guest book.

When the young couple drove to Klamath Falls, Ore., for a week's honeymoon, the bride was wearing a beige cotton tweed suit with red and white accessories.

They will make their home in Long Beach, where the benedict is employed by the American Box Corporation.

The new Mrs. Wix was graduated from Tamalpais High School and has just completed her junior year at San Francisco State College. She plans to continue her education at Long Beach State College.

Her husband also attended San Francisco State College.

Culmination of a romance started when Tenney Louise Coulon and Speed B. Leas met as members of the Congregational Church's Pilgrim fellowship youth group was their marriage saturday at the Mill Valley Community Church.

Frank R. Coulon of Mill Valley gave his daughter in marriage in a 4 o'clock double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Gordon L. Foster. The church was decorated with white gladioli, stock and chrysanthemums by a family friend, Mrs. Ernest Drew of Orinda.

Tenney recited her vows in a floor length gown of white crystalette fashioned on princess lines with V neckline front and back and fingertip sleeves. A pearl trimmed tiara held her waistline veil, and she carried a shower of white roses and bouvardia.

The maid of honor, Elizabeth McCoy of Mill Valley, and the bridesmaids Sally Edholm of Fresno, wore gowns of aqua crystalette similar to that of the bride except that they were street length and had short sleeves. Their headdresses were aqua cage veils, and they carried showers of white carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat N. Leas of Fresno, was John Neal of Fresno, and showing guests to their seats were the bridegroom's brother, Lester Leas of Fresno, the bride's twin brothers, Christopher and Robin Coulon, and Dick Riechel of Fresno.

Mrs. Coulon wore a kelly green printed silk sheath and green leaf hat, and Mrs. Leas attended her son's wedding in a pale green lace dress and matching cage veil. Their corsages were of cymbidium orchids.

After the wedding ceremony the young people received some 200 guests in the parish hall of the church. The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with fresh flowers. In charge of the guest book and assisting as hostesses were the bridegroom's sister, Mary Catherine Leas, and the bride's cousin, Ellen Yule of Great Neck, N. Y.

Among those attending the wedding was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. John R. Hunt of Wolseboro, N. H.

The bride's going away ensemble for a week's honeymoon at Huntington Beach, Calif., was a beige linen dress and a flower patterned coat.

On their return they will live in San Francisco, where the benedict will take over the regular minister's work for the summer, and Tenney will assist with Sunday school work and other duties at the Pilgrim Congregational Church.

Speed, an old family name going back to Joshua Speed, Lincoln's law partner, is studying for the ministry at the University of California and expects to graduate in February. At Fresno State College, which he attended before entering the University of California, he was a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

Tenney is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and has completed her sophomore year at the University of California.

Special To Dads And Teen-Agers: Give Mama A Real Summer Break

The hot season is hard on Mama. That's why I'm writing to husbands and teen-agers today. The mother in your home needs help. Will you prove to her that you love her? Will you do your best to make this a good summer for her?

School is out. Children are underfoot. The house gets dirty fast. There are many distractions. The weather is hot, and soon will be hotter. The tempo of a father's work lessens in the summer, but not a mother's. Teen-agers usually have too much leisure in July and August. Mothers have none.

So I ask you to help Mama. Do some of the cooking. A hot stove is no fun when the temperature soars. Help her with the beds, and the sweeping. Take over the supervision of the little ones part of the time. Give her a chance to sleep in at least one morning a week. She has been your slave all year.

You young people enjoy swimming. You have your outings, and your fun. Mama is human too. She enjoys a good time as much as you do. Will you give her a chance to swim? And to go on picnics where she doesn't have to do all the work?

Will you camp out on your family vacation? That's when Mama really gets it in the neck. She does all the cooking, on a clumsy outdoor stove. She makes the beds, washes the dishes and cleans the camp. Will you give the lady of your family a real vacation this year? Let her manage things, but do the work for her. Parcel it out among you. You won't be overburdened.

Will you try these things, fathers and teen-agers? Mama will be amazed. She'll never forget your kindness.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Your praise of American mothers makes me sick. The mothers I see are lazy, incompetent, selfish. How can you say they're overworked?"

MR. L. N.

(A) Because I know the lives American mothers lead. During their childbearing and child-rearing years they are badly overworked. During those years they need more help than they get. Later they may be idle, that is another matter.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, June 23, the 174th day of the year, with 191 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening stars are Mercury, Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

On this date in history:

In 1683, William Penn signed a treaty of peace with the Indians at Shackamaxon on the Delaware River.

In 1836, the federal government apportioned among the states a surplus of more than 28-million dollars.

In 1845, the Congress of Texas agreed to annexation by the United States.

In 1868, Christopher Sholes, a Wisconsin journalist and politician, received a patent for a typewriter.

In 1894, David Saxe-Coburg, later King Edward VIII of Britain and now the Duke of Windsor, was born.

In 1947, the House overrode President Truman's veto of the Taft-Hartley Act, thereby making it law.

Thought for today: The American philosopher William James said, "Be not afraid of life. Believe that life is worth living, and your belief will help create the fact."

SONOMA FAIR QUEEN CANDIDATE

Can you think of a better reason for a "sweetheart" contest than cut Karen Engman? The blonde Santa Rosa High School senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Iver Engman, of 139 California street, will be one of five Sonoma County Future Farmers of America girls competing at the Sonoma County Fair at Santa Rosa, July 16-25, for title of Sonoma County FFA "Sweetheart," an event inaugurated this year as part of increased junior division participation in the 22nd annual renewal of the Redwood Empire's greatest summer outdoor show.

Auto Accident Commission For State Urged

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's "intolerable" method of handling traffic accident law suits should be completely revamped by use of a state automobile accident commission, says an investigator for Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Announcing results of a four-month study, Stanley A. Weigel said Monday that such a commission could reduce insurance rates and free courts of "the staggering burden" of accident cases.

Present laws fixing blame on one driver, leaving him no compensation, or on both drivers, leaving neither with compensation, came under Weigel's fire, as did current theories of negligence.

"Anyone injured in an automobile accident should be entitled to some recovery," the San Francisco attorney suggested, "except in those cases where he himself has been guilty of criminal or wanton conduct, such as driving while drunk."

Negligence theories now used should be junked, Weigel said, and all drivers be required to carry liability insurance to take care of all accident victims.

A commission, he added, would reduce delays in obtaining court decisions and eliminate unimportant factors such as "the skill of the lawyer or the sentimentality of the jury or the availability of a key witness."

With courts freed of traffic cases, "their attention could be better focused upon more important legal controversies and better administration of justice," Weigel declared.

The first step toward establishing a California Automobile Accident Commission, he concluded, should be for Governor Brown to begin detailed research on the cost of the present system of settling accident disputes compared to probable costs of a commission system.

Local Help Urged To Develop Pt. Reyes Park

A federally-financed seashore recreation area on the Point Reyes peninsula will be dependent upon local participation and "the county should at once begin actively working on it," according to the 13-page final report of the Marin County Recreation Committee's subcommittee on parks, beaches and boating facilities.

The proposed national park covers a large block of land north of Bolinas, including both shoreline and hinterland.

In the northern and western portions of Drake's Bay and along the ocean shore only the shore and a narrow fringe behind it is proposed for inclusion.

Near the ocean shore about halfway between the Point Reyes lighthouse and the northern tip of the peninsula at Tomales Bluff, lies Abbotts Lagoon which is owned by the state. Its only access is across private land.

"This lagoon and its shores offer a variety of possibilities, and normally safe ones, which would enthrall any aquatically minded youngster," the report said.

The county should take steps to safeguard this stretch of shoreline and to acquire property near Drake's Bay Park, both to become public recreation areas now and later included in a national park as the county's "matching funds" contribution, the report proposed.

The ocean shore north of the Point Reyes lighthouse is unsafe for either swimming or fishing, the report acknowledges but is "nevertheless worthwhile saving in a comparatively natural state because ocean shores are a rare commodity and one which is too easily and frequently destroyed by unwise private exploitation."

Outside the proposed national park but a spot "with great possibilities for family outings" is the Sand Point-Tom's Point region, according to the recreation report.

"It combines boat launching possibilities, large sand beaches and sand dunes for picnic or play, and background of a lagoon and rolling hills where a variety of activities can be provided without too much changing the natural environment," the report said.

Part of this area is being developed as a commercial recreation site. The report suggested that the county be given some guarantee that a "recreation use" will be permanent.

The boat launching area at Miller Park on Tomales Bay is being developed with state aid. The site is about six acres in size.

The majority of boating or yachting berths and launching areas are on the San Francisco Bay side of Marin County.

Sausalito, Belvedere, Tiburon and San Rafael harbors are developed already. Boating harbors are planned for the Richardson Bay tidelands, Tiburon naval net depot shore, Corte Madera Creek, Gallinas Creek, Petaluma and Novato Creek, the report said. Marina residential developments are part of the picture too, the report noted.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Dad Must Choose

NYSSA, Ore. (AP)—Angel Martinez had to make a choice when his stepdaughters sank while wading in the treacherous Snake River. He saved one and the other drowned. So did a deaf-mute brother who tried to save the girl Martinez lost.

The victims were Magdalena Ribera, 11, and her brother, Reyes, 13. Martinez managed to save Guadalupe Ribera, 9. He said he grabbed at one of the girls but had to let go to save the other.

Martin Ribera, 5, also a deaf-mute, ran for help. He used gestures to alert a farmer working in a field nearby.

Rapist At Large

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A Negro man has raped six women, two of them white, in an eight-block area here during the past four months, police reported last night.

It was the first public word on the attacks. Police Chief James C. MacDonald said the assaults had been kept undercover in hopes of trapping the man.

MacDonald said that in each case the rapist attacked in the middle of the night while the victim's husband was away.

Last Rebel Weaker

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Confederate veteran Walter Williams "looks pretty good" despite his two-week bout with pneumonia and may pull through, his doctor says.

"He is much weaker than last week but we've pulled down his fever and he may pull through," Dr. Russell Wolfe said late yesterday.

Williams, 116, last survivor of the Civil War, developed pneumonia June 6. He apparently had recovered but then suffered a relapse.

Ellington Honored

NEW YORK (AP)—Duke Ellington is the winner of the 44th gold medal "for the highest or noblest achievement by an American Negro during the preceding year or years." Ellington, composer and orchestra leader, was selected yesterday by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Canal Traffic Jammed

PANAMA (AP)—The biggest peacetime traffic jam in the history of the Panama Canal is holding up ships from 24 to 36 hours, and no immediate letup is in sight.

Yesterday 27 vessels were delayed. Another 24 are expected to be held up today. Officials blamed the congestion on an unprecedented flow of traffic. From June 15-22, a total of 282 ships arrived at the canal.

Royal Performance

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—Liberace tonight plays his piano for Queen Mother Elizabeth, to conclude a tour of England marked by jampacked audiences and a successful libel suit.

The American entertaoner, along with stars of the British variety circuit, will play the command performance before the Queen Mother at Manchester's old Palace Theater.

It is Liberace's last performance in England this year.

Hagerty In Hospital

The operation, performed yesterday by Army Surgeon Gen. Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, was reported successful. Hagerty was said to be resting as comfortably as could be expected.

Success Explained

NEW YORK (UPI)—John H. Tully, 70, commended on his retirement after 47 years of "excellent professional performance" as a public school teacher and principal, had simpler words to explain his success.

"I know all their ways and tricks because I tried them myself when I was young," Tully said.

Have You Received Obscene Mail? Investigators Need Aid

Have you been receiving obscene or pornographic materials in the mail?

If you have, Postmaster Warren Williams of San Rafael would like to know about it, so that he can act to track down its source in order to start prosecution of offenders.

Williams said the Post Office Department is armed with new legal weapons to seek out and bring to justice mail racketeers who concentrate on the "degradation of teen-agers."

It has been estimated that 700,000 Americans will receive lewd circulars this year.

Many sociologists, Williams said, associate the rising adolescent sex crime rate with the growing spread of pornography, and it's a known fact that hardened sex criminals are—almost without exception— addicted to lewd and sadistic movies.

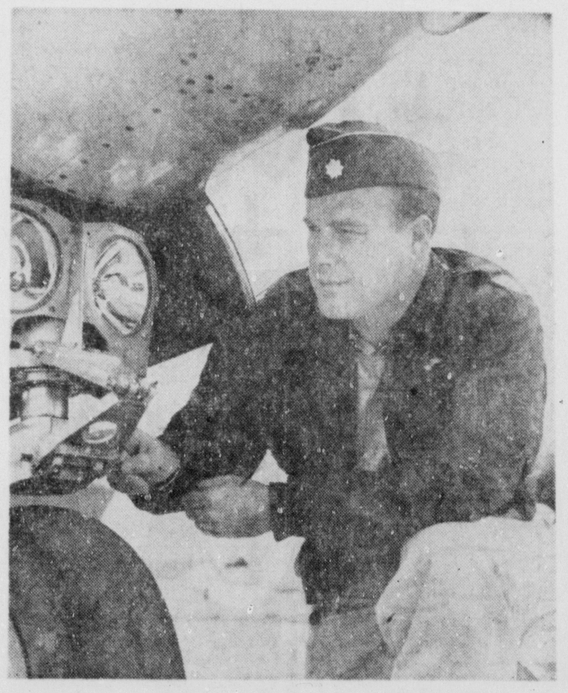
Many mailed circulars invite the purchase of such films.

The smut peddlers, heavy users of first-class mail which is not subject to inspection by postal authorities, have developed clever means of adding teen-agers to their mailing lists, he said. They crib names from high school annuals. They buy them from legitimate mail order houses dealing in items of interest to children. They even advertise acceptable children's merchandise at bargain prices to build up their lists.

"It's easy to get on a list, but nearly impossible to get off one," the postmaster said.

"This growing evil is repugnant to normal parents, and the post office is depending upon them to help stamp it out.

"Postmasters can put the finger on mailers of obscenity only when somebody who receives the material brings it to their attention. This is an essential first step toward action that can put the depraved mailer of the materials behind bars."



MOTEL MAN GETS AF POST

James S. Stockman, new owner of the Edgewater Inn motel in Corte Madera, and an Air Force reserve lieutenant colonel, has been named director of materiel for the 349th Troop Carrier Wing. Stockman, 39, a resident of Santa Rosa, will be in charge of materiel for the four squadrons of the wing, based at Hamilton Air Force Base, Sacramento, Portland, Ore., and Everett, Wash.

Leo Boyd, 40, Paso Robles, Division of Forestry relief Foreman, was engulfed in flames when his clothing caught fire. He was trying to drive a truck out of a flareup section of the blaze. Tom Kennelly, 28, burned both hands when he leaped on the truck and beat out the flaming clothing.

No structure was threatened. Cause of the blaze was undetermined.

Another Man's Wife Inherits From Superman

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Did television's Superman, George Reeves, really die by his own hand?

Why did he leave the bulk of his estate to the wife of a high-ranking film executive?

His mother hired a famous criminal lawyer to probe the suicide question yesterday. Probate of Reeves will disclosed, meanwhile, that his fiancee wasn't left a penny. "There must be another will," she said.

MOGUL'S WIFE

The will filed with Superior Court leaves the bulk of Reeves' estate to Toni Mannix. Her husband, Eddie J. Mannix, is vice president of Loew's Inc., former general manager of MGM Studio and now an adviser there.

In Galesburg, Ill., Reeves' mother said she doesn't believe he killed himself. She has hired famed Hollywood attorney Jerry Giesler to investigate.

"It's not like my George to do a thing like that," said Helen Lescher Bessolo of Galesburg.

KILLED HIMSELF

The 45-year-old portrayer of incredible feats on television shot and killed himself early last Tuesday, police said, shortly after saying good night to two house guests.

They were his fiancee, Lenore Lemmon, 35, and a writer, Robert Condon, 45, both of New York, who said Reeves was depressed because he could find no roles other than as Superman.

The petition for probate, filed with the will in Superior Court at nearby Santa Monica, listed the value of the estate in excess of $25,000.

FIANCE IGNORED

It left nothing to Miss Lemmon, a New York cafe society figure, who said she and Reeves had planned to marry in Mexico last Friday.

Arthur Weissman, executor of the will and Reeves' personal manager, said the actor had been a close friend of the Mannixes for many years.

He said Mrs. Mannix will receive Reeves' home and car and the money in his bank account.

HER VERSION

Weissman said Miss Lemmon insisted Reeves left another will naming her a beneficiary but that no such testament has been found.

Most of the rest of Reeves' estate will go to his mother, Weissman said.

Giesler said he thinks the actor's house was heavily mortgaged and that the estate will amount to something between $25,000 and $40,000.

IN HAPPY MOOD

Reeves' mother said "I had talked to him the previous Saturday night by phone and he was in his usual happy mood.

"I want to know who the people are who were in the house at the time it happened and where he got the gun."

Giesler said he had information that $5,000 was taken from Reeves' home either before or after the coroner's seal was put on the door.

In 1930, Sinclair Lewis became the first American to win the Nobel prize for literature.

School Board May Hire Counselor

The San Rafael Board of Education will consider hiring James Norton, for five years a head counselor at Los Lomas High School in Walnut Creek, as a $9,500-a-year San Rafael High School head counselor and guidance project director when the board meets at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the school administration building, 215 Mission avenue.

At Young GOP Meet

Wilda Jane Derryberry of 306 Laurel place, San Rafael, and Jeanne L. Dausse of 30 Sais avenue, San Anselmo, attended the five-day 11th biennial National Young Republicans convention at Denver. The convention ended Sunday.

IN HOSPITAL — American Jazz King Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong suffered an attack of pneumonia today while visiting the medieval city of Spoleto, Italy, for an American-European music festival. Armstrong had planned to perform tonight at the Festival Club for an American television program.

Marilyn Fine After Surgery

NEW YORK (UPI)—Film star Marilyn Monroe underwent gynecological surgery today at Lenox Hill Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said her condition was excellent.

Miss Monroe is the wife of playwright Arthur Miller.

There was no immediate further explanation of the surgery.

The actress has twice experienced miscarriages. On Aug. 1, 1957 she underwent surgery at Doctors Hospital here following a month's pregnancy. She lost a second unborn child Dec. 17, 1958, while at work on a movie in California.

Actress Bitten On Jaw By Dog

BEVERLY HILLS (AP) — Actress Elaine Stewart, 26, was badly bitten on the jaw by a dog in the home of a friend Friday night, she has disclosed.

The attack occurred while she was watching television, she said last night.

What the injury will do to the motion picture and TV career of the beautiful actress is undetermined.

"It depends on what happens when the bandages come off," she said in Doctor's Hospital, Beverly Hills. "They tell me doctors can do wonderful things now."

Her doctors were not available for comment.

New Publication Bows: 'The Sausalito Gazette'

A new Marin County publication, the "Sausalito Gazette," the stated purpose of which will be "to cover local current events as well as history," made its appearance in Sausalito last week.

Publisher and chief editorial writer is Pearce Davies Jr., 37, a two-year Sausalito resident who has been active in the publicity field, and a writer of radio and television scripts.

"Our first issue," Davies commented "was produced with the idea of being a promotion piece for 'The Drunkard' now being offered weekends by the Sausalito Little Theater."

The first issue is heavily laden with historical information.

"But as we talked with people around Sausalito," Davies said, "we found the response to be most gratifying and decided to continue the publication at least on a monthly basis."

The publication is in tabloid format, eight pages and is printed by offset process on coated, glossy stock.

Business manager of the publication is Tom Erhart, with the publication office temporarily located at Davies' home, 602 Humboldt street.

Other staff members include Joan Zerbe, Nan Fowler, John Brebner and Dulce Ray.

Davies did not set a definite date for issue No. 2 of the "Gazette," but indicated it should make its appearance on local newsstands shortly.
